Civic center approved

State Sen. Sam M. Vadala of this district attended ceremonies in the office of Governor Dan Walker as the governor affixed his signature Tuesday afternoon to Senate Bill 166, which creates the Metro-East Exposition and Performing Arts Authority. Vadala sponsored the bill.

"After many years of long hard effort, we have finally reached the top of the mountain," Sen. Vadala said.

"I want to express my deep appreciation to Gov. Walker for signing this bill. No one can possibly say how enormous the impact the creation of a new civic center will have on our area at this time."

"But this is certainly by far one of the most important pieces of legislation I have ever sponsored for the benefit of the area I represent."

"It was necessary for all the parties who were concerned with the bill to work closely with the governor's staff and members of his administration to make all this possible. We owe a great debt of thanks to everyone who cooperated in a piece of legislation that will benefit not just this area but the entire state."

"New jobs will be created; business and industry will grow. More tourists will be attracted to the area that will be building these new civic centers."

Certain amendments voted by the governor will need to be sustained before the bill can take effect.

Creation of the local Exposition and Performing Arts Authority is scheduled to take effect in July 1975.

At that time, 12 members of the Authority are to be appointed by the governor, six each from Madison and St. Clair Counties. There will be equal representation on the Authority of both political parties.

"It's important to realize how much this new facility can do to bring the entire Illinois region together in a new spirit of cooperation," Vadala said.

"United we can stand tall and together in bringing a new spirit of prosperity and mutual understanding to an area in which many people have worked at cross purposes before."

"I hope that this new spirit of mutual cooperation and understanding will be with us from the very beginning. We are finally going to be getting a share of the tax revenue from pari-mutuel betting and cigarettes that have been working to the benefit of other parts of the state."

"Many people, particularly in the Senate and the House, worked hard to pass Senate Bill 166. There also was tremendous support in the community. If I tried to mention one name, it would be unfair to many others."

"So let me express deep appreciation to everyone who did his share in making Senate Bill 166 create the kind of potential for this area that it presently represents."

Outline of bill

Senate Bill 166, signed Tuesday, creates the Metro-East Exposition and Performing Arts Authority. The bill is considered a major economic breakthrough for this region in two ways:

1. The bill provides for construction of a $15,000,000 public facility which can be used for conventions, fairs, exhibits, entertainment programs, etc.

The facility is expected to spin off related construction projects and business enterprises and create hundreds of jobs in addition to the direct infusion of a major construction project in the local economy.

2. The bill makes available, for the first time to this region millions of state dollars derived from cigarette taxes and pari-mutuel taxes which previously have been devoted entirely to Chicago (McCormick Place).

The presence of two major race tracks in this area, and the large population base, mean that millions of dollars originally generated here in cigarette and pari-mutuel taxes will be brought back for the first time, backers of the legislation contend.

Basic provisions of Bill 166 are as follows:

A. The bill creates a Metro-East Exposition Authority which will run the facility.

The Authority is governed by a 12-member board — six of whom must be from St. Clair County.

Gov. Dan Walker on Wednesday formally approved a $60 million program of state support for metropolitan civic centers in the Edwardsville, Peoria, Rockford, Springfield and Aurora areas. He immediately asked the General Assembly to make several changes in the Senate bill before it is signed into law.

The proposed changes would increase Peoria's allocation by $5 million "to bring it on a par with comparable metropolitan centers, and to correct some legal problems in the bill," Walker said.

Sen. Sam Vadala (D-Edwardsville) sponsor of the bill, said he approved the changes and will recommend approval of the amendments to the General Assembly. Sen. Vadala predicted a quick legislative passage as well.

Funds earmarked in the bill, as provided in Gov. Walker's amendatory veto suggestions, are: $15 million for the local area, $15 million for Rockford, $15 million for Peoria, $10 million for Aurora and $5 million for Springfield.

Walker pointed out that Springfield now receives state funding to repay half its civic center construction bonds under previous legislation.

The governor's amendatory veto increased the amount for Peoria from $10 million to $15 million.

The bill creates a new Metro-East Exposition and Performing Arts Authority here and provides state funding for existing authorities in Peoria, Rockford, Springfield and Aurora.

Under terms of the revised legislation, local authorities can sell bonds to obtain the funds to

Broad new city law challenged

An ordinance signed into law this week may be so defective that it will have no actual impact, studies have indicated.

Granite City Ordinance 3115 adopted Aug. 26 and not yet effective is intended primarily to ban palm reading.

But its first section appears to be "prior restraint" effort to prohibit advertisements of any sort regarding merchandise, securities, service or anything so offered to the public, which advertisement contains any assertion, representation or statement which is untrue, deceptive or misleading.

A question being raised by many citizens is whether the city government can or should place itself in the position of judging what is untrue, deceptive or misleading. Such citizens cite constitutional safeguards against abridgement of freedom of speech.

The right to peacefully assemble also may be jeopardized by the third section.

The section is aimed at seances but refers to "any public or private meeting" in a way that theoretically might rule out church services. Again, the municipality presumably would be put into the position of evaluating what is responsible and what is deceptive.

The second section, targeted at fortune telling, is worded so broadly as to include psychology, business advice and "advice of any kind or nature to others—for or without pay."

City officials cite the limited intent of their action and Mayor Paul Schuler this week noted that courts are empowered to decide the legality of municipal laws.

A repeal move is regarded as one of the possibilities.

Meanwhile, Ordinance 3115 remains a matter of record as a document "regulating and prohibiting deceptive advertising, advertising psychic or magical powers, spiritualism in fortune telling and providing penalties for violation thereof."

An alderman has reported complaints from neighbors about palm reading in the 2800 block of Madison Avenue.

The ordinance stipulates: Section 1. No person shall with intent to sell or in any way dispose of merchandise, securities, service or anything offered directly or indirectly to the public for sale or distribution or with the intent to increase the consumption thereof—

Or to induce the public in any manner to enter into any obligation relating thereto, or to acquire title thereto or any interest therein.

No persons shall make public, disseminate, circulate or place

Senior center open

Over 250 local senior citizens and guests attended the official opening of the new Granite City Township Senior Citizens' Center, 1918 Edison Ave., Tuesday.

The day's activities began with a ribbon-cutting ceremony by Township Supervisor Nelson Hagnauer and Edgar E. Paddock, president of the Granite City Council for Senior Citizens.

The Rev. Paul Surbey gave a prayer of dedication and Paddock welcomed everyone and gave special thanks to persons helping to make the center a reality.

The center will be open on Monday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on other days of the week except Sundays, when it will be closed all day.

Anyone living in Granite City Township and guests who are 55 years of age or older may use the facilities of the new center.

Hagnauer said the center "will provide a central meeting place for senior citizens and will give them a base, close to bus transportation and the downtown area, where they can organize other activities."

The center is being rented by the township, using federal revenue sharing funds, until a new township building can be constructed at the site of the former Central School, 21st Street and Delmar Avenue, which has been razed. Permanent space for the senior citizens is planned in the new building.

Fatal cycle crash

Kevin Bruce Woods, 15, of 13 Devon Hill Lane, was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 7:35 p.m. yesterday after he was fatally injured in a motorcycle accident.

The boy was riding his brother's motorcycle in a field about 100 feet south of the barricades at the west end of Villa Drive, when he lost control. The motorcycle struck a hole and tumbled end over end, stopping about 33 feet from the hole.

Friends said Kevin had asked his brother, Kerry, 19, how the motorcycle was operating and the brother was reported to have told him he was welcome to try it. They went to the field where Kevin tried to ride the motorcycle.

After the crash, an ambulance took the boy to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was pronounced dead. A fractured skull was believed to be the cause of death.

A Thibault resident of Granite City, Kevin was a sophomore at Granite City High School South. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norbert (Lorraine) Woods; one brother, Kerry Woods; and paternal grandmother Mrs. Gertrude Woods of Granite City.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Home rule bringing tax hike

Press-Record Staff Writer

A new 1974 tax levy of $2,278,345 which is expected to cause a substantial jump in next year's city tax billing was approved by the Granite City Council Tuesday night.

The new levy, increased $304,189 over last year's levy of $1,974,156, extends $300,027 in taxes for general and purposes and $1,948,317 in taxes for the city's 12 special accounts.

Despite the increase over last year's levy, the new tax extension would result in a deficit of more than $700,000 if all expenditures projected in the 1974-75 budget were made.

City Treasurer Paul Rutledge said that the new tax levy figure applied against the city's present property assessment of $165 million would result in a 1974 tax rate of $1.39 per $100 assessed valuation.

If this projection holds true, the 1974 tax rate on which tax bills would be based for collection in 1975 would increase approximately 16 cents over the 1973 rate of $1.23.

Under the city's present status as a "home rule" city, the full amount of its tax levy can be extended by the county clerk's office when 1974 tax rates are computed.

Previously, city tax rates were limited and could raise only the amount of tax money permitted by the maximum rates.

This year's tax levy is $2,278,345 less than the city budget of $5,242,681 approved by the City Council in late July. The difference between the tax levy and the budget would be financed from funds made up of account balances, receipts of state income and sales taxes, parking meter revenues, fees from licenses and permits and from sources other than taxation.

The levy for the general fund is $37,102 less than last year's general fund extension of $367,129, but it is more than offset by the increase in the total levy for other accounts.

The total levy of $1,948,317 for the special accounts is an increase of $341,280 over that of last year.

Specific levy items in the new extension include $247,520 for the fire department, down from $256,990 last year; and $165,013 for the street department, up from $106,189 last year.

The levy for the sanitation fund is $247,520, up from $200,322, and the levy for firemen's pensions was set at $206,742, an increase from

School lunch cost to rise

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer

A 5-cent increase in the cost of elementary school lunches and a 10-cent increase for junior and high school lunches were approved by the Granite City Board of Education Tuesday night for the public schools.

The increases will be effective Sept. 30, if state approval is received.

Superintendent of the school district, B. J. Davis, commented at the meeting, "With the increasing cost of food and labor we must, reluctantly, increase prices."

Davis said cafeteria services in Granite City schools lost $65,492 in the 1973-74 school year, the result of a 19 percent increase in food costs to $83,646, and a 12.6 percent increase in labor costs to $54,740.

Dale C. Rea, assistant to the superintendent, said the increases in price "are considered a necessary minimum if the cafeteria program is to operate without large losses. They are expected to produce additional income of approximately $65,000," Rea said.

Plate lunches at elementary schools will increase from the present 40 cents to 45 cents while junior high and high school lunches will increase from 45 cents to 50 cents.

"We have tried to hold the prices down. Some districts are asking for 10 to 15-cent increases," Davis commented, adding, "I feel that 45 cents for an elementary type 'A' plate lunch is very reasonable for the size and type of lunch served."

Rea said more restrictive guidelines on reimbursements for free and reduced price lunches added to the overall problem.

Although the free lunches proceed federal and state

Cards for GC senior citizens

"Gold Seal Award" cards, allowing senior citizens in the Granite City School District to attend most school functions and home athletic contests without charge, will be issued free by the Granite City Board of Education, for those who apply starting tomorrow.

"This is simply one way of saying 'thank you' to the senior citizens and letting them know they are not forgotten upon reaching the age of retirement," B. J. Davis, superintendent of Granite City public schools, said at Tuesday night's board of education meeting.

The laminated senior citizen identification cards will be issued free of charge to those who apply at any school in the district, starting tomorrow.

They must present identification showing that they reside in the school district and proof that they are 65 years-of-age or older.

The cards will allow free

Campaign finance disclosure signed

Gov. Dan Walker on Tuesday signed into law the first campaign financing disclosure act in the state's history.

Senate Bill 1568 was passed late in the spring session of the legislature, culminating a 22-month effort by Walker and many members of the legislature.

Gov. Walker first urged legislation dealing with campaign financing disclosure in his State of the State Message in January 1973. There were repeated messages and a special session of the legislature last year, with support growing until passage was achieved at the close of the January-June 1974 session.

The bill makes Illinois the 47th state to require disclosure of campaign contributions and expenditures. Only Idaho, Louisiana and North Dakota still have no disclosure law.

In signing the bill, Walker again called on the General Assembly to pass legislation requiring candidates for public office and public officials to make full disclosure of income, assets, liabilities and net worth, and make their federal income tax forms public.

The legislation follows a series of executive orders.

Walker has issued dealing with honesty in government. Aspects of that ethics package include:

Establishment of a state Board of Ethics.

Complete financial disclosure by key state employees under the governor who earn $20,000 or more a year.

Disclosure of campaign contributions by firms doing business with or regulated by the state.

A ban on state employees soliciting political contributions or political work from other state employees.

Creation of the Office of Special Investigations to root out corruption in government; and the policy of awarding consulting engineers contracts by committees made up of public officials and public members.

Under the new act signed Tuesday, all political candidates and campaign committees for candidates which raise or spend more than $1,000 in connection with a campaign are required to register with the State Board of Elections.

Statewide policy referendum which raise or spend more than $3,000 also must register.

The committee and candidates must file an annual report of contributions and expenditures at the end of each fiscal year and additional reports of contributions 15 days prior to, and 90 days following an election in respect to which the committee is active.

Jaycees to revive Miss GC Pageant

In announcing the resumption of a Miss Granite City Pageant to select a local girl to compete for the Miss Illinois title, Jerry Gann, president of the Granite City Jaycees, said a specific date for the contest has not yet been chosen, but the event will take place in November.

Committees to plan the program presently are being formed and area organizations will be contacted by Jaycees members asking cooperation in sponsoring a "young woman in the contest," Gann said.

The GC Jaycees agreed to revive the traditional pageant after discontinuing the project four years ago.

The local winner will vie for honors at the Miss Illinois Pageant and the state title winner will compete at Atlantic City, N. J., for the Miss America crown.

"We agree are serving as sponsors of the pageant because we believe it provides a valuable contribution to the community and to the young ladies who will enter the competition," Gann said.

"We also believe it serves the community well, as it focuses attention on the high caliber of young women who are area residents. We similarly believe it serves youth as well, providing the chance for the young ladies who enter to gain added poise through public appearances and added maturity from participation in a community program," the Jaycees president said.

"Most important, the pageant will afford the opportunity for the winning candidate to continue to seek scholarship awards at the Illinois state pageant and help her to secure an education at the college of her choice," Gann said.

"This will be a community endeavor and we are hopeful that all will participate to assure its success," the Jaycees officer said.

Moss-American now Forest Products Division of Kerr-McGee Chemical

Moss-American, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Kerr-McGee Chemical, has been renamed the Forest Products Division of Kerr-McGee Chemical Corporation, it was announced today.

Moss-American operates a wood treating plant on Washington Avenue in Madison. Effective Sept. 1, the Moss-American organization was realigned to work alongside the four other operational divisions of Kerr-McGee Chemical Corp.: agricultural chemicals, chemical marketing, chemical manufacturing and pigments manufacturing.

Wm. J. F. Francis, Kerr-McGee Chemical president, said Moss-American's incorporation into the chemical company was a natural change, since Kerr-McGee's wood product operations are more closely related to its chemical operations than its other activities.

Evan Currys mark 40th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Evan J. Curry of Granite City were honored during the weekend on their 40th wedding anniversary at the Lodge of the Four Seasons at the Lake of the Ozarks, Mo.

The honorees were feted by several long-time friends and area families who traditionally convene at the resort during the Labor Day weekend.

A special cake baked by the Four Seasons chef and decorated with whipped cream flowers and bouquet topping was served the guests. An arrangement of flowers under a glass dome was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Curry by their friends.

Dr. Steve Geroff, a brother-in-law of Mrs. Curry, served as toastmaster at the dinner. The remainder of the evening was spent dancing to the Four Seasons Combo.

Other guests were Mrs. Geroff and Mrs. Peter Petroff, sisters of Mrs. Curry; Miss Judy Petroff, a niece; and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Paschoff and Carol Ann Paschoff, Debra Paschoff Spudich, Mr. and Mrs. George Miosky, Thomas Miosky; Mrs. William Dimitroff, Mr. and Mrs. William Dimitroff, Jr. and children, Nancy, Katherine and William III; and Mr. and Mrs. Christ Paschoff.

Clothing is being sought for Nearly-New Center

Donations of clothing for all ages of school children in the Quad-Cities are needed by the Nearly-New Clothing Center. The Nearly-New Clothing Center for School Children, a volunteer organization sponsored by Church Women United in the Quad-Cities, receives gifts of clothing from the community—to be received as gifts of clothing by those students who have such a need. Donations of clothing may be dropped off at the Clothing Center, which is located at Fourth Street and Hampden Avenue, Venice Homes, Venice, on Tuesday mornings only from 9:30 to 11:30.

Another clothing dropoff is located at Central Christian Church, 2020 Johnson Road, 876-0539.

Over 800 applications were filled last year. Students are referred to the center by school counselors, school nurses, ministers and social workers.

These professionals then fill out an application form for needed clothing items for the student and the Church Women United volunteer schedules appointments for the applications to be filled.

Mrs. Joyce Schrader, CWU chairwoman for the Nearly-New Clothing Center for School Children, has requested that items donated be in good, usable condition.

Cash donations, which are used to purchase shoes and underwear, are needed particularly at this time with so many back-to-school needs, she said. Checks may be made out to: Church Women United for Nearly New Clothing Center.

The checks can be mailed to: The CWU treasurer, Mrs. Ruth Todd, 4827 Warnock Ave., Granite City. All donations are tax-deductible.

Johnson PTA to start meetings

Mrs. Katie Wilson, president of Johnson School PTA, conducted an executive board meeting on Tuesday night at the school and announced future board meetings will be held on the first Wednesday of each month for the 1974-75 school year.

The first regular PTA meeting will take place at 7:30 p.m. Monday. All parents are being urged to attend.

Reports were submitted by Mrs. Val Novosel, vice-president and program chairman; Mrs. Mary Smallie, budget chairman; and Mrs. Margie Love, who outlined plans for a membership drive.

Mrs. Virginia Epperson said a raffle sale will be held Oct. 14 to Oct. 21 and the school sweat shirts will be sold under the leadership of Mrs. Pat Howard. Information concerning PTA meetings will be sent home with the students, according to Mrs. Irma Curtis, who said Campbell soup labels also will be collected this year.

The Granite City PTA Area Council pollock dinner meeting will be held at 6 p.m. Sept. 26 at the Johnson School.

Others at the board session were Richard Brinkhoff, Mrs. Nech Eickman and Mrs. Donna Peterson.

Emerson PTA to meet Tuesday

Miss Dorothy Bailey, physical education teacher at Russell Johnson School, will be the guest speaker at the first meeting of Emerson PTA at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, the unit president, Mrs. Shella MacLaughlin, has announced.

Miss Bailey will show slides and give details of a "junk yard playground" created at Johnson School by students, teachers and parents of the pupils.

Emerson PTA members have discussed tentative plans to construct a similar type playground at its building, Mrs. MacLaughlin reported. Parents of all students are invited to attend.

Cystic Fibrosis drive to start

A proclamation officially declaring Sunday, Sept. 8 through Sunday, Sept. 15, as "Breath of Life Week" in the Quad-Cities was signed into effect this week by Mayor Mike Sasyk of Madison, Mayor F. David Moss of Pontoon Beach, Mayor William "Mike" Ebersoldt of Venice and Mayor Paul Schuler of Granite City.

J. W. Settle family reunion

A western theme was used to decorate the hall of the Nameoki Recreation Center for the annual reunion of the J. W. Settle family held this week. Games were enjoyed by the group and special treats were presented to the children by Madames Thelma Mathews, Robbie Donley, Virgie Settle and Ruth Hancock.

After a potluck supper, entertainment was provided by a local kitchen band and a wedding gift was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hancock. Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Mathews, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mathews, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Mathews, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Gargich and children, Gayle, Karen, John and Tommy, Mrs. Virgie Settle, Mrs. Barbara Lassiter and son, Clint.

Mr. and Mrs. George Moran and children, Terri, Keith, Cliff, Kathleen and Timothy, Mr. and Mrs. Don Sinclair and daughters, Ann, Leslie and Laura, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Griffith and daughters, Nancy, Jennifer and Mary, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Donley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hileman, Chuck Hileman, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Donley and family, Jeff, Joel, Jill and Julie, Pat Griffith, Bill Chrusciel, Sharon Lelenewski and Rick Fansher.

Jonathan Jones is christened

Jonathan Trent Jones, adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Jones, 2706 Sunset Drive, was baptized during the weekend at St. Joseph Catholic Church, with the Rev. Henry Mack officiating.

Sponsors for the child were Jesse Ybarra and Sister Barbara McMullen.

The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Mack Carpenter and Mrs. Barbara Bilbrey, all of Granite City.

The child was born on May 25, 1970. He was formally adopted by the local family this week.

Ebersoldt of Venice and Mayor Paul Schuler of Granite City. Door-to-door solicitations to aid the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation (NCFRF) will be conducted in the Quad-Cities by volunteers under the direction of Mrs. James (Alice) Worthen of Granite City, general chairman.

Mrs. Leonard (Brenda) Harper is leading the volunteer march in Madison for the third consecutive year.

In signing the proclamation, Mayor Schuler urged all citizens to support the NCFRF's "Breath of Life" campaign, conducted on behalf of children who are victims of lung-damaging diseases.

"Knowing what to look for and what to do is essential in dealing with these problems," Madison Mayor Sasyk said, noting that "early diagnosis and treatment are vital to prolonged life."

Mayor Ebersoldt praised the NCFRF for its role in education of both medical and lay segments of the population and for the tremendous advances made in patient care.

The care now available has helped CF patients to more productive lives and has been responsible for today's outlook that 50 per cent of the CF patients can expect to live longer than 18 years of age. When the foundation was founded in 1955, most CF patients died in infancy, Mrs. Worthen said.

"Most of us don't have to think much about the act of breathing, but these children cannot take breathing for granted," Mayor Moss stated. "They need our support and understanding and I hope every citizen will regard their struggle for breath as a very personal matter."

Witnessing the proclamation signing were two children who know first-hand the tragic circumstances of cystic fibrosis. They are Joey, 7, and Billy, 4, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Carl (Cindy) Donaldson, and the grandsons of Mr. and Mrs. James Worthen.

Both youngsters were diagnosed at birth as having cystic fibrosis. A third brother, David Lee, died in 1968 at the age of 2½ years, a victim of the same disease.

Joey, a third grade pupil, receives medicated aerosol therapy four times daily, postural drainage, takes medication before each meal to help digest food and anti-biotics three times each day. He sleeps under a mist tent at night.

Billy follows the same life pattern as his older brother, with the exception of having to take the medicated aerosol therapy, Mrs. Worthen said. Both are very active, outgoing and loving children, she added.

The Quad-City drive chairman stressed that parents and prospective parents should become aware of the signs of lung-damaging diseases.

The symptoms include recurrent wheezing; persistent coughing with excessive mucus; recurrent bouts of pneumonia; excessive appetite with poor weight gain; and clubbing (enlargement of the fingertips).

Cystic Fibrosis signs may also include a salty taste to the skin; persistent, bulky diarrhea and nasal polyps.

Mrs. Worthen said the NCFRF supports more than 110 centers throughout the country for diagnosis and treatment of the most serious lung-damaging diseases. Cystic Fibrosis, the most serious, is inherited when both parents carry the recessive CF gene.

She noted that researchers believe that one in every twenty people may be symptomless carriers of the CF gene, or about 10 million persons in the United States.

Other lung-damaging diseases, such as asthma, chronic bronchitis, disorders of lung development, bronchiectasis and recurrent or persistent pneumonia can be extremely serious and required specialized treatment, Mrs. Worthen said.

The proclamation designating Sunday as the start of "Breath of Life Week" in the Quad-Cities reads thusly:

WHEREAS, lung-damaging diseases affect millions of children in the United States; and, of diseases that kill children, lung disease is the second most common; and, WHEREAS, cystic fibrosis, the most serious lung-damaging disease, is the number one genetic killer of children and occurs once in approximately every fifteen hundred births; and

WHEREAS, the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation has once again chosen the entire month of September for its nationwide campaign, the Quad-Cities area has chosen the week of September 8th through September 15th as "Breath of Life" week to enlist public support in the fight against cystic fibrosis and other serious lung diseases in children. All funds contributed will go directly to the Gateway Chapter serving central and southern Illinois, and the St. Louis area.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that we, the Mayors of Madison, Venice, Pontoon Beach and Granite City, acting under and by virtue of the authority vested in us by the Constitution and Laws of our cities, hereby proclaim the week September 8 through September 15 as "BREATH OF LIFE WEEK" and urge the citizens of our communities to join with the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation in its humanitarian task.

South and North ready for their first varsity football clash

By KEN THOMPSON
Press-Record Staff Writer
Area fans who have awaited patiently to witness the first meeting of both Granite City High School varsity football teams, may receive an unexpected treat when the contest gets underway at 8 p.m. tomorrow at South Stadium on Fehling Road.

The treat is that the game has prospects of being a real thriller, since both year-old GCHS North and long-established GCHS South appear to be on a near equal basis.

Both South and North mentors have put together effective aerial and ground, offense combination, and North appears to have a possible edge in its defensive line.

The Steelers have an offensive apparatus built around second-year Quarterback Gene Logas, who is six feet tall and weighs 175.

Teaming with him will be 6-foot-1, 185-pound Left Halfback Mike Donoff; 5-9, 169-pound Right Halfback William Carr; and 5-11, 171-pound Fullback Lenny Wright.

All are senior lettermen. "We feel we need to progress more in blocking, tackling, punting and kicking," remarked Steele Coach Tom Wyrostek this week. "Of course, our first game-type action will be against South Friday."

North's offensive line will consist primarily of senior lettermen — Center Dave Hamilton at 5-11 and 183 pounds; Tackle Mark Davis, 6-0, 200; Guard Robert Holzhauer, 6-0, 184; Guard Keith Lucas, 5-9, 185; and Tackle Jim Barker, 6-2, 235.

Tight End David Kwiatkowski, 6-2, 170, is a junior. At safety will be senior John Scott, 6-1, 161.

"Our game plan," adds Wyrostek, "is something we'll have to play by ear. We will adjust according to what they do defensively."

"Defense," said new South mentor Stan Wojcik, "is a problem. We have almost all of our experienced players on offense,

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD
Thurs., Sept. 5, 1974 Page 6

leaving us with a relatively green crew to stop the opponent."

South committed 11 turnovers in one practice session. "You can't win ball games that way," said Wojcik; "that's 11 opportunities you give the other team."

During one session the Warrior team fumbled the ball six times and recovered four of six fumbles.

From all indications, South will put the ball in the air more than it employs ground plays until the team can overcome such problems.

"It's going to mainly be up to the backs and receivers," added Wojcik, "to put us on the scoreboard."

The heart of South's scoring effort will be in the hands of nine lettermen, seven seniors and two juniors.

The nine are first-year Quarterback Kirk Champion, a 5-10, 170 senior; Guard Greg Terrell, a 5-10, 170 senior; End Bryan Wilson, a 5-11, 165 senior; and junior Bryan Bunjan, a 5-foot-10, 150-pound junior as backup quarterback.

Bunjan also will do the kicking for South.

Sophomore Keith Champion, 5-foot-7, 153 pounds, is also slated as a backup quarterback.

Keith Moran fills one guard position while Charles Ruth, a junior, and Tom Boyd, a senior, are still vying for another guard position.

Jerry Patterson, a 5-8, 180-pound junior, fills one of the tackle positions.

"One thing for sure," says Wojcik, "when Coach Wyrostek and his team show up here tomorrow, they will be totally prepared to play football. We also hope to be ready."

Donoff and Bill Carr, halfbacks. The Steelers will begin their second year of varsity football Friday. Last year the North gridders had a 4-5 record and defeated Collinsville 17-7, Edwardsville 28-0, Bethalto 20-0 and Madison, 41-8. The game Friday will be the first varsity football meeting of the two Granite City schools. (Press-Record Photo)

Racing season for stock cars nearing end for '74

Late model stock car driver Len Gitemeier, St. Charles, Mo., and sportsman class driver Jack Yates, Granite City, will have their fingers crossed tomorrow evening when stock car racing for both classes at Tri-City Speedway resumes at 7:30 p.m. for time trials. The first heat event will start an hour later.

Both drivers, in the last two outings, have lost valuable points in their divisions due to identical misfortunes during feature races.

Two weeks ago, their race cars ran out of gasoline as both were running in contention for the lead near the conclusion of the races. Last week, Gitemeier had just wrestled the lead from eventual winner Kevin Gundaker with three laps remaining when the St. Charles driver lost a wheel in the first turn of the half-mile dirt oval.

Yates, in the sportsman feature, was running second with three laps to go when his car, too, lost a wheel in the first turn of the quarter-mile track. That division's current point leader, John Wolfmeier, with 1,200, was the eventual victor in the race.

Holding down the number two spot in sportsman points with 1,180, is Granite Cityan Rod Bailey. Yates is third with 880 after picking up only five points last week.

Gitemeier, despite the mishap, added 120 points to extend his lead in the late model division by 165 points over Wallace, who has 1,045 points.

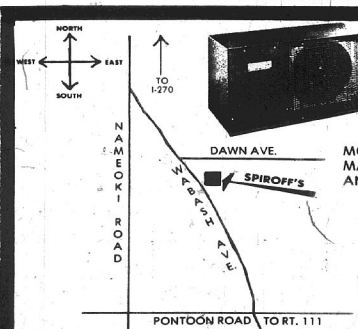

Wallace was prevented from closing the point gap when Gitemeier captured a heat race and the handicap event.

With only two more race dates scheduled before the season championships for both classes, a combination of mishaps for the leaders and victories for other drivers could bring a sharp change in the chase for the two track titles.

Tomorrow's program will be the last of the Friday night racing dates. The speedway will switch to Saturday evening racing starting Sept. 14.

Registration for wrestling, judo; instructors to be Fuchs brothers

The Tri-City Area YMCA has a team of two brothers providing leadership in wrestling and judo programs. Bill and Len Fuchs will be teaching the classes in both sports, and registration is being conducted this week.

Bill Fuchs, a name familiar to anyone in the state who follows wrestling, has just returned from four-year stint in the Navy Air Corps.

Illinois state champion in 1967, he will be heading up the wrestling classes.

He holds the state record for his three-year performance in high school—108 victories (78 pins) and three losses. Bill Fuchs has also been state runnerup two years, district champion three years, sectional champion three years and winner of numerous tournaments.

He was presented the Sports Illustrated Award of Merit. He also was regional athlete in 1967, Ozark AAU champ in 1967 and 1968 and high school all-American for two consecutive years. He and his wife, JoAnn, and baby daughter, Traci, reside in Granite City.

Len Fuchs will again be the instructor for all judo classes. He is a Shodan—black belt. He placed third in the Junior College Nationals, fifth in the YMCA Open Nationals and fourth in the National Collegiate Judo National and has won several matches in National AAU competition.

Len Fuchs will be a junior at SIUE this fall. He is studying law enforcement and hopes for a career as a police officer.

Both began in wrestling and judo at the age of six at the YMCA.

Wrestling classes will be conducted on Tuesday and Thursday.

Beginners will meet from 5:30-6:30 p.m. and 6:30-7:30 p.m. Junior high and high school (all abilities) will meet from 7:30-8:30 p.m.

The session will run seven weeks. Cost to "Y" members will be $4 and to non-members, $15.

Judo classes will meet each Monday and Wednesday. Beginners will meet from

James, Ackers are ineligible

The Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association ruled this week that three members of the Northeast Missouri State University (Kirksville) football team, Harold James, of Madison, Willie Ackers, of Venice, and Warren Whittis, of Cincinnati, are ineligible to play as seniors.

The association followed an NCAA regulation which stipulates that athletes who were "red-shirted" (kept out for one season) as freshmen would have only three years of eligibility remaining. The three players in question did not play in 1970 but participated in competition for the past three seasons.

Kenneth Gardner, athletic director at Northeast, notes that James, a co-captain linebacker, was selected last year for the all-conference second team. Ackers this year had just been switched from wingback to fullback on the team to fill a vacancy.

The ruling leaves the university with only four seniors on the squad from the original eight who reported to camp. The team earlier lost one senior in practice due to a sidelining injury.

Home opener for grid Trojans on Saturday

Trojan football mentor Al Vonder Haar today announced a switch in player positions for Mason High School's game Saturday with Wentzville.

MHS will open its 1974 season here at 2 p.m. Saturday.

"We are getting closer to game time," said Vonder Haar, "and we still have positions to fill due to last-minute vacancies."

Senior returning letterman Kevin Ditch, until yesterday, had earned the center position but now with center 200-pound Stevie John Crook apparently out of the picture, Ditch is slated as offensive tackle.

Crook is no longer with the team, the coach said.

Vying for the center position now are Sophomore Jeff Thompson and Junior Robert Stern. That position will be filled after today's practice session.

The Trojan squad is also looking for a defensive back, since senior letterman Steve McCunney is out of the lineup with an injured ankle which he received in practice.

Despite pre-game problems, Trojan coach feels the team will be a hustling squad.

"They are really excited," he said. "The whole team appears to be really dedicated to the sport."

One of the squad's main assets, Vonder Haar feels, is its strong reserve of sophomores who last season led the freshman squad to a winning record with only one loss.

"We also appear to have cured last year's 'fumble' that hurt us so badly," remarked Vonder Haar.

"With that problem out of the way, our offense looks capable of doing a good job on our opponents."

Heading Madison's offensive will be second-year Quarterback Emmett Timmons, a 5-foot-10, 165-pound senior letterman. He will be backed by Mike Woods, a six-foot, 150-pound junior letterman.

In the backfield ready to receive the ball will be Backs Joe Young, a 5-5, 165-pound senior senior letterman, Junior Dwight Childers and Sophomore Pete Fecurka.

Filling the remaining positions are: Ditch, a six-foot, 185-pound senior letterman; Wendell McKaskill, 6-3, 200, junior letterman, also at tackle; End Kevin Werner, 5-6, 140, senior letterman; End Harold Williams, six-foot, 160-pound junior letterman; and Junior Guards Chris Horton and Mark Jiles, the latter a 5-5, 220-pound letterman.

Madison and Wentzville will be meeting for the first time ever when the daytime game gets under way at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Trojan Field.

South soccer opener

Granite City High School South's soccer squad travels to Alton at 4 p.m. today to open its 1974 season. Coach Gene Baker views the contest, and Saturday's 11 a.m. game here with St. Ignace (Mo.), as giving him a good idea of what the Warriors can do against Chicago area teams.

"We saw Alton beat St. Paul of Highland 1-0 this weekend and then lose to GCHS North Tuesday," said Baker. "Though Alton is a young team, it is a hard working, hustling squad." Baker says the Warriors are in excellent condition and have not been plagued with injuries.

"We look for Dave Sheridan and Charlie Bennington to lead the attack on the opposing team's net," he speculated.

"We are anxious to start playing to see if any changes have to be made."

After today's contest with Alton, South will play host to St. Ignace Saturday at the Warriors' Fehling Road soccer field.

South passes for adults being sold

Granite City High School South is announcing that adult season passes for all warrior home football, basketball and wrestling events may be purchased at the school's main office during regular school hours.

South Field's ticket booth before the North-South football game Friday night.

All South home games will cost $1 per event if a season pass is purchased.

South high will have four home football games, nine home basketball games and nine wrestling meets.

Crosstown teams in cross-country meet

Granite City High School North cross-country mentor Pete Robinson still is not revealing which Steeler harrier he has as an "ace up his sleeve" for today's North vs. GCHS South meet at the new Steeler Field.

One can only speculate since the Steelers will be competing in their first meet of the season, that it will be either senior Dave Tanner, the only returning letterman, or junior Dave Fuchs or sophomore Mike Becherer. Both Fuchs and Becherer last year turned in acclaimed performances for the North Jayvee squad.

South's Warriors jumped the season on crosstown North by competing Tuesday in a five-school pre-season meet at Alton.

"We looked good at Alton," said Warrior Coach Dick Harmon. South earned 245 points to take third behind second-place Edwardsville, which had 210 points, and the victor, Alton, with 188 points. Centralia had 294 points and East St. Louis failed to score. Only the top ten runners were counted.

Two Warriors placed among the front runners — Dwayne Terry, who ran the hilly, three-mile course in 15:28 to finish second behind Alton's Mike Sawyer, and eighth-place finisher Jim Hall with a time of 16:15.

Other South finishers were: Sam Nesbit, 15th at 16:48.

Frank Holmes, 18th at 17:06; Greg Ahlers, 19th at 17:08; Randy Presswood, 30th at 17:34; Don Meagher, 33rd at 17:50 and Dave Brown, 34th at 17:52.

"North," said Harmon, "is good and has the advantage of being accustomed to the course at North."

Shot put king will perform at festival Sunday

George Woods, holder of the world indoor shotputting record, will appear in an exhibition performance at the Mitchell fall festival Sunday, Sept. 8, at 3 p.m.

His throw of 72 feet, 2 3/4 inches is the longest in recorded track and field history. Woods, presently an admissions counselor at SIUE, placed second in both the 1966 and 1972 Olympics.

In NCAA competition, he placed second in 1964, outdoors, and first in 1966, indoors.

In AAU competition, he placed first in 1967, 1968, 1969 and 1973.

The Mitchell Athletic Club festival will run Sept. 6, 7 and 8 and will feature food, rides and free entertainment.

Tournament games Friday

The rain-delayed annual Rufus Ketter men's softball tournament, hosted by the Granite City Park District, is scheduled to resume and possibly end tomorrow at Worthen Park.

The tournament will resume with semifinal games beginning at 6 p.m. Friday, with American Legion Post 307 meeting L&W Movers. At 7 p.m., Millie & Mickey meets Madison Amvets, and at 8 p.m. Granite City Pest Control plays the victor of the Legion-L&W contest.

Winners of the latter two games will meet at 9 p.m. tomorrow to decide the tournament champion.

Hockey referee weekend clinic

Amateur, high school or college ice hockey referees are invited to attend a referees' clinic to be conducted by the National Ice Hockey Officials of America (NIHOA) Saturday and Sunday at LeChateau Ice Rink, Fairview Heights.

Bill McFarland of Granite City, president of the St. Louis chapter, said registration will start at noon Saturday. Fees of $5 each for participants and $3 for observers will be charged for the two-day clinic.

Sessions at noon Saturday and 1 p.m. Sunday are planned. Certificates will be awarded to those successfully completing the clinic.

Further information may be obtained by calling McFarland at 876-6918 after 6 p.m.

Two-stroke loss for golf Steelers

Steelers golfers evened their record Tuesday at 1-1 after dropping a close, 178-174 decision to Highland at the Nine-hole, par 36, Highland Country Club.

Scoring for GCHS-North were brothers Tim Behrens, 42, and Bob Behrens, 44, and Gary Eaker and Bob Harper, each with a 45.

The North squad travels to Alton at 4 p.m. today for a meet, and will then play host to Salem at 4 p.m. Monday at Arlington Golf Course.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY. No. 44 is inscribed on this cake presented to Wib Spalding of Pontoon Beach, the driver of a late model stock car bearing that number, this week by members of the local driver's fan club at his home. Spalding, a three-time champion at Tri-City Speedway, is still going strong at the age of 41 and will compete Sunday at the Champaign County Fairgrounds in the 6th annual Illinois state championship race for late model stock cars.

He was fourth in that event last year after experiencing a flat tire on his race car. Pictured with Spalding (holding cake at right), are, from the left and around the circle, his two-year-old granddaughter, Kelly, his wife, Rose, Annie McCall, Rosie McCall, Dorothy Green, Bonnie McCall, Gene McCall, Becky McCall and Mrs. Gene (Lou) McCall.

Steel-like soccer defense helps North win opener 6-1

The soccer Steelers of GCHS North opened their 1974 season at home Tuesday with a 6-1 victory over Alton.

Playing two 35-minute halves at Steeler Field, North's Kevin Gavlick scored the first goal of the season five minutes into the contest on a pass from Co-Captain Harvey Breckner.

Breckner brought the ball downfield on the left side and executed a long, diagonal pass to Gavlick, who broke toward the net from the opposite side of the field.

The play pulled the opposing goalie out in an attempt to intercept the pass, but Gavlick beat him to it and pushed the ball into the corner of the net. Breckner and Dan Sedej then galloped one each for North before Alton scored to make it a 3-1 game.

Sedej, Breckner and Dave Wolf each put the ball into the net in the second half to put the win on ice.

Goalies Rick Demaree and Kevin Marcus split goal-keeping duties and were praised for all but shutting out the visitors.

Steelers Coach Bob Kehoe views his team's 1 p.m. contest at Quincy Saturday as possibly being "a real toughie."

"Quincy's coach," remarked Kehoe, "was twice an All-American soccer player at Quincy College."

"He really knows the game. That means we'll have to be sharp and on our toes at all times."

Resume eighth-mile weekend drag racing

An old aspect of drag racing, not seen here for several years, will be reintroduced this weekend at St. Louis International Raceway—eighth-mile racing.

The track will resume weekend racing Saturday evening with gates opening at 5 o'clock and eliminations at 8:30. On Sunday, the gates will open at 10 a.m., with eliminations set for 2 p.m.

More than $1,000 in prize money is being offered this weekend in selectra (ET) and super street eliminator classes. The ET class involves elapsed time; drivers are handicapped on the basis of their advance record of elapsed time.

Stock, super stock and street eliminator cars with national eighth-mile records of 8.75 seconds or faster are eligible.

Drivers may choose a faster ET than their cars' national record to enter.

The super street winner each day will receive $300, with $100 checks for the runner-up.

First prizes of $100 and runner-up awards of $50 are offered in the selectra class.

Class competition for trophies also will be held Saturday and Sunday.

Spectator admission is $2.95, with children under 12 admitted free with an adult.

A special eighth-mile championship race for super street cars is planned for Sept. 14 and 15, with American Hot Rod Association eighth-mile record runs held during the event.

Quarter-mile "gudge racing" is continuing each Wednesday evening from 6 to 10:30 at the track.

Boys' tackle football season will open here

The Granite City Little Hascall boys' football program will open its second season this weekend with two doubleheaders, Saturday and Sunday, at the South High field.

The local organization is one of 16 groups comprising the Tri-County Junior Football Conference, which provides tackle football competition for boys up to 13 years of age.

Other communities in the conference are Alton, Collinsville, Edwardsville, Wood River, Cahokia, Fairview Heights, O'Fallon, Columbia, Willard, Bethalto, Scott Air Force Base, Belleville and Duplo. More than 80 teams are registered in the conference, including four from Granite City.

On Saturday, the local Junior Pee Wee and Pee Wee teams will play host to Wood River at 1:30 p.m., and again at 3 p.m.

At 1:30 p.m. Sunday, the two Midget teams will meet Collinsville North here, and then will play host to Cahokia Central at 3 p.m.

Team weight and age groups are: Junior Pee Wee — 65 pounds or less, nine-year-olds and under; Pee Wee — 85 pounds or less, 10 and under, and 75 pounds or less, 11-year-olds; Midget — 115 pounds or less, age 12 and under, and 100 pounds or less, 13-year-olds.

Mercer team to begin playoffs in road game

The 1974 Illinois Inter-City Baseball League playoffs will get under way Sunday with competition involving the top two teams of each division, the Red and Blue.

Defending league champion Mercer will carry its 8-4 record into the playoffs, having won 11 of 12 games during the regular season.

On May 26, Troy topped the local nine 16-1, on July 4, Mercer took 11 innings to edge Troy 6-5; and on Aug. 18, Troy posted a 13-5 win over Mercer.

Other than the two playoff teams in each division, the final season standings are: Red—Highland-Pierson 6-10; Blue—Piasa 7-10 and Livingston 3-12.

games will meet Sunday, Sept. 15, on the Red Division team's home diamond to begin a best two-out-of-three series to decide the playoff champion.

Heading into this Sunday's competition, Troy and Mercer have won 11 of 12 games during the regular season.

On May 26, Troy topped the local nine 16-1, on July 4, Mercer took 11 innings to edge Troy 6-5; and on Aug. 18, Troy posted a 13-5 win over Mercer.

Other than the two playoff teams in each division, the final season standings are: Red—Highland-Pierson 6-10; Blue—Piasa 7-10 and Livingston 3-12.

Harrier meets being arranged

Madison High School Harriers, who last year split off their cross-country season against Mater Dei Breese on Sept. 6, will have to wait this season until Coach Larry Graham can schedule meets with their schools.

"We had a few runners come out thus far," said Graham, "but we definitely need a lot more."

Graham said he is contacting area high schools to schedule meets and should have the season lined out by early next week.

Arrested at parade

Three men were charged after their auto was stopped during the Shriner's parade as it passed Madison Avenue and Nameoki Road at 8:30 p.m. yesterday. Officers said the car drove from a restaurant parking lot into the center of the parade.

Police stopped the car and ordered the driver to back up and get out of the parade. Officers said the driver and two passengers in his car started using abusive language and they were arrested.

The driver, Joe Dant, 20, of 1715 Third St., Madison, was charged with illegal transportation of liquor, intoxication and disorderly conduct.

Robber takes man's wallet

A robber stole the wallet of Ronald Killian, 2812 Birch Ave., after threatening Killian with a knife, the victim reported at 12:45 p.m. Wednesday.

Killian said he was walking in the 2100 block of Grand Avenue when a 1965 to 1967 dark-colored Chevrolet stopped beside him and the driver asked Killian for a light. When Killian approached the car, the man grabbed his shirt and pulled him inside the car, it was reported.

Killian said the man held a knife to his chest and demanded his money. The victim gave the robber his wallet and he was released unharmed.

The wallet contained $15 and personal papers, he said. He described the robber as about 24 or 25 years-of-age, about 6 feet tall, weighing about 200 pounds and having brown bushy hair and a full beard. He wore a light plaid shirt and blue denim pants, officials were told.

Politte critical

John Politte, 31, East Alton, was returned to the critical list yesterday in the intensive care burn unit of Barnes Hospital. St. Louis. He suffered burns over 65 per cent of his body and a puncture wound to the right side in a fire at Sunny's Village Inn tavern near Routes 162-111 in Pontoon Beach Aug. 27.

His condition had improved to stable during the weekend.

Two have been charged with arson in connection with the blaze which destroyed the new tavern, which was about to open. Free on $750 cash bond each are Raymond Flynn, 43, St. Louis, and Robert Richmond, 43, St. Charles, Mo.

They were arrested in East Alton after leaving Politte's home after the fire. Sheriff's deputies towed the car in which the two men were arrested to a holding area in Edwardsville where they discovered a secret compartment behind the front seat.

Deputies alleged they found burglary tools, three revolvers, three sets of handcuffs, three ski masks and a map of Dallas, Tex., with a circle around an exclusive neighborhood. A pair of gloves, believed to be soaked with a flammable liquid, also was in the car.

Six diamonds were found in Flynn's wallet when he was arrested and both men allegedly were carrying large amounts of cash.

A spectator at the fire told police clothing was burning in a field near the tavern parking lot.

Found in the burning clothing was Politte's wallet, containing $600 and six more diamonds, according to official reports. Politte later walked nude into St. Mary's Hospital, East St. Louis, and requested aid.

Among the goods found in the auto police are holding was one reported stolen during a house burglary in St. Louis County. The state fire marshal's office is conducting an investigation into the cause of the fire.

Name calling—harbinger of 1976 state campaign?

By KEN WATSON

Press-Record

Springfield Bureau

The accession of Gerald Ford to the presidency has apparently brought a new wave of relaxation and good feeling to the nation's capital. But this new spirit of friendliness apparently is not yet flowing into Illinois' capital city and this state's politics. Beneath the Statehouse Dome there is a growing feeling that Illinois politics could be drifting into one of the most bitter periods in history and that this may extend through the 1976 gubernatorial election. The worst fears of Capitol pessimists were confirmed during last week's Hambletonian activities in Southern Illinois when Gov. Dan Walker and Atty. Gen. William J. Scott engaged in some tough and sarcastic name-calling. Scott touched it off by referring to Walker as a "squirrel" and later explained that he was referring to Walker's custom of "tying a bandana around his neck, gold-plating his hiking boots and saying that, 'Okay now, that gives me the understanding of the state,' and concentrating on that instead of getting to work on these very serious problems that the state has."

Gov. Walker was quick to fire back, declaring that "I guess you have to place it in context. It's a little name talking."

It was a remarkable exchange, considering that the two men involved are regarded as the titular heads of their respective parties and expected by most politicians in the state to be running against each other for governor two years from now.

There are already Statehouse predictions that the anticipated 1976 governor's race between Democrat Walker and Republican Scott will be the most bitter and perhaps even the dirtiest in Illinois history. The Walker-Scott animosity is far more than a case of mere political feuding between two politicians. The feeling is intense on both sides.

Each man harbors an intense dislike for the other and neither makes any bones about it. The fact that a head-on political confrontation appears almost inevitable can only intensify the ill-feeling between them.

Illinois politics and government are becoming more emotional all the time. Walker's style contributes to this as much as anything. Recently in replying to legislative and other criticism concerning interference in Public Aid Department personnel matters by Victor DeGrazia, deputy to the governor, Walker declared that DeGrazia was being criticized because he has a Sicilian name. Others said that this is nonsense. DeGrazia has been involved in a number of controversies since the Walker administration assumed power in 1973 and, in many instances, criticism of his operations has been well-documented. In the public aid controversy, it was Walker's appointee as director, Joel Edelman, who made the public charges that DeGrazia and his associates undermined Edelman's authority in the department, causing him to resign. Gov. Walker's resort to the Sicilian name tactic as a counter-attack to gain public sympathy for DeGrazia recalled a recent assertion by Senate Minority Leader Cecil Partridge of Chicago. Partridge said he was being harassed by the press concerning a possible role in the insurance examination case involving a son of Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley because he (Partridge) is black. The rising tide of emotionalism in Illinois politics was clearly evident during the hectic final days of the 1974 legislative session. Personal attacks by one orator legislator against another, which would not have been tolerated in the past, became common. The bitterness aroused is likely to carry into future legislative sessions. Meanwhile, some influential Republicans are working quietly to persuade Scott to avoid further personal exchanges with Walker. They advise that Scott adopt a more reserved, statesmanlike, above-the-battle stance. They reason that by 1976 voters may be ready for a "governor who will be an Illinois version of Gerald Ford."

Manufacturers to hear Gov. Walker

Illinois Governor Daniel Walker and Illinois Environmental Protection Agency Director Dr. Richard Bricefield will be the first two speakers for the 51st annual season of dinner meetings of the Southern Division of the Illinois Manufacturers Association. Industries in Madison, St. Clair and adjoining counties have held four dinner meetings yearly under IMA auspices for over 50 years. All meetings will be held at the Missouri Athletic Club in 1974-75. The Wednesdays that are scheduled are Oct. 16, Nov. 20, Jan. 22 and March 5. The appearance by Gov. Walker, slated for Nov. 20, and Director Bricefield, scheduled to open the season on Oct. 16, continue the Southern Division's 1973-74 program theme: "Illinois Industry and Government."

A survey of the 111 Southern Division member firms revealed that a great majority of member companies rated such a program as helpful and informative in dealing with their increasing problems with Illinois government. All four meetings of the 1974-75 dinner season will be devoted to industry-government issues and the increasing government regulation of private business. The association has scheduled Elmer McClain, regional director, U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, and Mel Jordan, executive director, Illinois Fair Employment Practices Commission, for a joint presentation by the two agencies on March 5. Eugene J. Hardy of the National Association of Manufacturers will speak Jan. 22.

IMA, comprised of 5,500 industrial firms, is the largest and oldest of all state manufacturers' associations.

The Southern Division executive committee includes Paul H. Kelly, A. O. Smith Corp. plant manager; Donald Cairns, a Granite City Steel vice president; Alfred Zamarone, Nisco Steel Barrel Co. controller; Roger A. Higgins, Nestle Co. plant manager; and M. B. Milonski, American Steel Foundries works manager.

HURT IN CRASH
Richard Dawson, 35, of 805 Kirkpatrick Homes, was injured when his car and the auto of Curtis Wolfe, 707 Minerva Ave., collided at Edwardsville Road and 13th Street this week. He did not seek hospital treatment.

GCok's more annexations

Two more parcels of Nameoki Township property were annexed to Granite City by City Council action Tuesday night and petitions seeking annexation of two other sites were referred to the City Plan Commission for a recommendation.

The council accepted annexation and approved the plan for lot 201 in addition 5 of Dream Villa Addition at the request of Allen and Barbara Kemmerly. Also approved was the annexation of part of Lot 2 of Evergreen Subdivision 2 at the request of Sam and Rose Carson. There are no residents on either tract, according to the annexation ordinances.

Petitions asking annexation referred to the plan commission were those of Francis E. and Marcella Herman for part of lot 95 and all of lot 96 of Dream Villa Addition 3, and John P. and Wanda Sabo for parts of lots 181 and 192 of Dream Villa Addition.

These petitions will be considered during the City Plan Commission meeting Sept. 12. The council received notice from the Department of Transportation that the state will receive bids Sept. 17 at 10 a.m. on safety revisions of the Nameoki Road intersection of Johnson and Fehling Roads. The project will be federally financed under the old Traffic Operations Program to Improve the Capacity and Safety (TOPICS) with the federal government providing 75 percent of the cost.

The project will include widening of the intersection, rechanneling of the traffic lanes and installation of new traffic signals that will include left-turn lights.

The Illinois Environmental Protection Agency notified the city that plans for construction of the Norwood Elementary School have been approved and a permit for the construction has been issued. The line will include 1,091 feet long and will include five manholes and connect to the Granite City sewage treatment plant.

Another ordinance establishing a traffic stop for east and west traffic entering Walnut Street on Niedringhaus Avenue was approved.

A traffic stop for northbound traffic on Edison Avenue at 26th Street also was approved.

The council heard a complaint by Paul Cooper, 2836 Michigan Ave., that his front and back yards have been restored by city workers since he granted the city an easement to lay a drainage line through his property nearly two years ago.

Cooper told the council that there are holes in both his front and back yards and that a load of dirt hauled in by the city some time ago "wouldn't even grow weeds." He asked that the city fill in the holes and sod the yard.

Several aldermen protested the cost of sodding and Alderman Emerald Dawes of the Seventh Ward said that the city on several occasions tried sodding, but that the work and money was wasted because sodding was not successful.

On a motion by Dawes, the council agreed to instruct Street Superintendent Lionel Portell to fill the holes and to seed Cooper's lawn.

Alderman Walter Nona of the Fifth Ward asked that the city notify the operators of the Recycling Center at Adams Street and Niedringhaus Avenue that containers be provided for scrap materials left at the center. Nona said paper and refuse "is flying all over the streets and should be put into containers."

Alderman Ronald Coleman of the Seventh Ward and Alderman Dawes protested that driveways and road shoulders have not been properly restored where easements were dug to install the Doherty Slough Drainage line.

Coleman also objected to the appearance of the pump installed on the Doherty line at Washburn and Amos avenues. He asked that the city engineer be instructed to request the C. D. Peters Construction Co., which installed the line, to make a change in the specifications calling for encasement of the pump in a metal shed or other type of casing that would improve the appearance.

Both Coleman and Dawes said that many residents are unable to get into their driveways without sinking into soft ground that has not been properly replaced where the line was dug.

Purchase of a new camera with special lens attachments for the police department was approved by council members at the request of Chief of Police Ronald Velzer who told the aldermen the police department camera equipment has not been replaced "in the last 20 years that I know of."

Velzer presented prices he had obtained from three sources of camera equipment. The council approved the purchase of the equipment from the Graham Book Store at a total price of $541, at a discount price. Velzer said the regular retail price of the equipment normally would be $632.

Alderman William Dallas of the First Ward took issue with figures showing the particular cost of Granite City air has lessened and said that 1973 records of air pollution tests on a monitoring station located at his home showed three to four times more than the allowable particular count under federal and state standards.

"I'd sure like to see this year's records," Dallas said. He claimed that the agent who is supposed to read the monitoring equipment weekly "doesn't show up some times for three or four weeks at a time."

Alderman Coleman asked City Attorney George Fillet to bring in an ordinance at the next council session to ban parking on the north side of the 100 block of Ponton Road.

Council members approved a motion to rent a postal meter machine for the office of Building Inspector Robert Kelly at a cost of $7.50 per month.

Illinois College classes resume

TELEVISION TAKEN

Venice committees named

Alderman John Ervin told the Venice City Council Tuesday evening that he feels the efforts of the council and others to establish a "food stamp distribution center in the Quad" city area is making headway. He said that a special committee appointed by Rev. John O. Owens, chairman of the board of directors of the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission, will hold a meeting Thursday 5:30 p.m. at the Granite City Hall, 2000 Edison Ave. Ervin said that Hugh R. Hairston is chairman of the committee.

"I am happy to hear some progress is being made toward locating a distribution center in our area. We really need one," Venice Mayor Mike Ebersoldt said. Ebersoldt said Ervin and Hairston "can continue to count on the strong support of myself and the entire council in this project.

"I am a firm believer in committees, as three good heads are better than one in solving problems, so I am asking the council to approve my appointments of two new committees," Ebersoldt commented.

"To handle problems as they come up from time to time, I am appointing a McKinley Bridge committee of Fourth Ward Alderman Tyrone Echols, Third Ward Alderman Louis D. Ratliff and First Ward Alderman Thomas Voegel.

"I also would like to appoint a Senior Citizens committee to work with our older citizens and keep communications open between them and the council. Senior citizens make up a very important segment of our community and I want all of them to know that the council and the mayor are interested in helping them.

To serve on this committee, the mayor appointed First Ward Alderman E. Harry Buente, Third Ward Alderman John Ervin and Fourth Ward Alderman Oscar King.

The council approved both committees.

The McKinley Toll Bridge report for August showed a total of 238,027 vehicles crossed the bridge for an average daily total of 7,581 crossings.

The council approved a

Board hires custodians, kindergarten teachers

Mrs. Katherine Clay, 42, of 2560 Lynch Ave., and Mrs. Sandra Peterson, 41, of 3243 Willow Ave., were employed by the Granite City Board of Education Tuesday night as new kindergarten teachers.

Both have bachelor of education degrees from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. Mrs. Clay will teach at Frohardt School and Mrs. Peterson will be assigned to Emerson School.

The board also employed Edward Meheic, 3400 Terrace Lane, and Marie Prusak, 2232 Waterman Ave., as custodians.

The board requested the administration prepare an outline of the district's program for gifted students. Board members will discuss the outline at the board's Sept. 17 meeting in preparation for giving a presentation to the new Local Parents' Association for the gifted organization.

Two gifts were accepted with gratitude. The Logan School Parent-Teacher Association donated 15 cassette tape recorders for use at that school, and the Granite City Evening Kiwanis Club gave McKinley School a new carpet for a special education class.

Permission was granted to the Area Council PTA to use Johnson, Niedringhaus, Parkview, Nameoki and Wilson schools for its five meetings this year.

The Uniwah Council, Boy Scouts of America, was allowed use of Coolidge Junior High School for monthly district roundtable meetings.

Permission also was granted to the Granite City Park District and the Tri-Cities Area YMCA to distribute pamphlets and flyers in the schools to promote their programs.

Alan Orider, director of the gifted students' program, was granted permission to attend the National Convention on Exceptional Children in Los Angeles, Calif., April 20 to 26. Expenses were approved.

Board members and administrators were authorized expenses for those attending the Southwestern Division Governing Committee meeting Sept. 11 at Augustine's Restaurant, Belleville.

Board members and appropriate administrators also were authorized expenses to attend any of the National School Board Association meetings or workshops throughout the country during the 1974-75 school year.

It was agreed to purchase two season tickets for the Illinois Manufacturers' Association's annual series of dinner conferences during the school year. Each $36 ticket covers four dinner meetings.

An offer from St. Elizabeth Hospital to establish a physical therapy service for injured athletes was declined by the board. It was felt the rates offered did not constitute a savings and since the student accident insurance provides unlimited outpatient physiotherapy at a hospital, the effect would be only to restrict treatments of athletic injuries to a particular time and date.

Tote seminar

Karen Machino of Granite City has returned from Tulsa, Okla., after attending a week-long National Tote Teachers Seminar.

The seminar consisted of intensive training in tote and decorative painting, with classes beginning each morning at 8 and often extending to midnight.

The seminars are conducted by Priscilla Hauser and her staff and are held at Priscilla's Little Red Tote House, which is acclaimed as the number one training institution in the field of tote and decorative painting in the U.S.

Seminars are open to both experienced and prospective teachers, featuring unique teaching and painting techniques.

Recipients of national tote teacher certificates emphasize that "anyone can do Tote and Decorative Painting when provided with proper instruction. It is method painting; patterns are used, so drawing skill is not required. All one needs is desire to paint."

Her work is on display at the J & I Hobby Shop, where she will teach classes in beginning and advanced tote and decorative painting starting Sept. 17.

Thinks law is ineffective

Alderman Roy Poulos of the Third Ward told his fellow council members Tuesday night that he doesn't believe the city ordinance banning X-rated movies is doing much good.

"During the weekend," Poulos said, "I went to one of our theatres and saw 'Thunderbolt & Lightfoot.' Then I went to another movie and saw 'Macon County Line' and 'Boxcar Bertha.'"

The alderman remarked that "Thunderbolt & Lightfoot" had a "little bit of sex in it. 'Macon County Line' had a little more."

But "Boxcar Bertha" Boy, if that ordinance isn't any more effective than that, we'd better junk the whole thing right now."

Other aldermen pointed out to Poulos that all three of the movies he mentioned are rated R.

Local children help Jerry Lewis

Several area children have been helping the annual Jerry Lewis Muscular Dystrophy drive for funds.

Judith Raskovsky, 11, of 1617 Sixth St., Madison, after watching the telethon Sunday, went around her neighborhood and collected $35.

Darrell and David Davis, both 15, of 2307 Logan Ave., collected $48 Monday in a five-hour effort.

GC school board ok's new salary schedule

A new salary schedule for Granite City public school teachers became official Tuesday night as the Granite City Board of Education gave its approval to the agreement. The Granite City Federation of Teachers Local 743 approved the pact Aug. 22. The new agreement calls only for higher salaries. A two-year agreement on other issues was reached before the 1973-74 school year. It remains in effect this year. Cost of living increases also will be received under the continuing pact.

The agreement increased wages by $100 in many categories and as high as $850 yearly in one category.

Beginning teachers with a bachelor of arts degree increase from $8,900 to $9,000, and beginning teachers with master degrees increase from $9,850 to $9,750.

Teachers with one year experience here also will receive $100 raises and teachers with three to 11 years of experience will receive $450 more.

Eleven-year teachers receive a $100 increase but those reaching a new step, for those with over 12 years experience, will receive $850 more than last year.

B. J. Davis, superintendent of schools, commented earlier the board approved the agreement. "I feel it is a very fair agreement," both to the teachers and the school district," he added, "it certainly will not increase our tax rate in this school district."

Dr. George Moore Sr., board secretary, said the negotiating committees for both sides, "did a fine job in a very short period of time."

Board Treasurer L. Monroe Worthen, a member of the board's negotiating committee, congratulated Harold Hillmer, employe relations administrator, for his work, saying, "His efforts helped to facilitate negotiations. The teachers approached this on a reasonable basis and our committee was able to do the same. It cut a lot of red tape."

He added, "The teachers received only a 1.5 to 2 per cent increase last year. We can hardly say they were not entitled to an increase."

The board voted to send letters of appreciation to the members of the teachers' negotiating committee commending them for the professional manner in which they conducted the negotiations.

A new salary schedule for administrators also was approved by the board calling for increases of about 7 per cent. The basic raise for administrators was $850 per year with some adjustments in the salaries to bring them "more in line with each other," according to Davis.

The highest salary was $27,025 for Assistant Superintendent Frank Kraus. Davis' salary was not in the recommended increases.

Worthen suggested that the salary of the superintendent be increased $235, from $29,490 to $29,725. They also authorized a $1,000 mileage allowance for Davis, which he did not previously receive.

Worthen commented the increase "was a consensus of opinion of the board to indicate a job well done during the past

Catholic Scouts in area take Marquette trail hike

Several area Catholic Boy Scouts and leaders hiked the "Pere Marquette Trail of 74" which is sponsored by the Diocese of Belleville's Department of Outdoor Education for Boy Scouts.

The 1974 Pere Marquette Trail was a five-day tour and pilgrimage through the Indiana and Illinois countryside for Boy Scouts.

The theme of this year's trip concerned the monastic life of the church. Scouts visited the historic Archabbey of St. Meinrad and St. Meinrad Seminary.

The boys hiked to the Convent of the Immaculate Conception at Ferdinand, Ind., which was six miles. This is the home of the Sisters of St. Benedict founded in 1867. The Sisters took the boys on a tour of the Academy.

They returned on the bus to camp on the football field, St. Meinrad for dinner, then took a bus ride to Camp Kack for Crippled Children and Hospitalized. This camp is between Troy, Ind., and Tell City, Ind., and is sponsored by the Easter Seal Society of Indiana. The camp covers 33 acres.

The purpose of the Marquette Trail is to give Catholic Scouts a better understanding of phases of their religion. Each year the Marquette Trail takes hundreds of Boy Scouts to various institutions.

Last year the boys went to Canada for a week. On this trip about 300 boys spent approximately 20 hours riding on school buses to reach the camp. The plan for next year is a trip to St. Petersburg, Florida, during August.

While on the trip to Indiana, the Scouts camped in their tents, ate meals prepared by the staff cooks, and helped with cleaning up.

On this trip to St. Meinrad Monastery, there were 49 Boy Scouts and 16 staff members, under the direction of Father Vonnahmen, director of Marquette Trail, and Father Rocky Rachel of St. Louis, formerly from St. Joseph Church in Granite City was on the trip.

Others were Scouts from Fairmont City, E. St. Louis, Fairview Heights, Belleville, Collinsville, Granite City, O'Fallon, Ill., Paducah, Ky., and Evansville, Ind. Assistant Scoutmaster Kendall Hillmer Sr. of St. Joseph Troop 7 of Granite City was in charge of Troop 1, along with Scoutmaster Jack Vizer, Troop 16, Assistant John Stanfill, Troop 7.

Boy Scouts from Troop 7 hiking were Richard Buecker, Gerald Drees, Martin Pledler, Tim Gelsler, Kenny Hillmer, Donald Marquis, Danny Moutrie, Robby Mungovan, John Verres, Bryan Warren. Troop 16 Dave Throne, Craig Vizer; Troop 46, Timothy Hendricks.

reimbursements of $50,000 more than the same number of lunches would have brought in if sold at regular prices, tighter restrictions on those eligible for free lunches caused 36,000 fewer free lunches to be served last year than in the 1972-73 school year, Rea said.

About 22 per cent of the lunches served in the district were free last year, he added. Rea predicted that about $12,000 more this year should be realized from increased reimbursement rates from the free lunches.

The board also voted to increase the adult plate lunch price from 75 cents to $1, an increase which should bring about $7,000 more into the cafeteria operations this year. The combination of the plate lunch increases for students and adults and increased reimbursements may bring about $107,000 more this year into the cafeteria operations.

The cost of a la carte items also was increased to more closely reflect the increased food and preparation costs, which should bring that figure even higher, he said.

The district anticipates higher labor costs as well as higher food costs this year. A new contract for cooks has not yet been agreed upon.

Board Member Carl Macios said he voted reluctantly for the increases, adding, "This is going to hurt a lot of people." He agreed that cafeteria operations cannot continue to operate with large losses.

The board voted unanimously for the increases.

BURGLARY AT LOGAN

Items worth about $350 were stolen from the Logan School Annex after the south door was opened, it was reported at 9:15 a.m. Wednesday. There were no signs of forced entry. There was writing in chalk left on the blackboards. Taken were a $275 controlled reading machine, a record player, scissors, a file folder and a lace-up training shoe.

admittance to most home athletic contests, school plays, concerts and other activities. For sporting events where reserved seat tickets are sold, senior citizens may present their cards for a free reserved ticket in advance of the game.

Davis explained the cards can not be honored for tournaments conducted by the Illinois High School Association, even if held here, which includes district, sectional and state contests.

"Since the events are put on by the IHSA, we have no way of asking them to honor our identification cards," Davis explained. He added the passes may not be used for away athletic contests, which are sponsored by the host school districts.

Other activities at which the passes can not be honored include banquets (where senior citizens must purchase their meals), apprenticeship programs, drivers' education and activities at the schools which are sponsored by community groups or agencies.

Passes are issued for a one-year period and must be renewed annually. They may be used only by the person who applied for the card.

The superintendent said senior citizens may apply at any school and must sign a form which states, "I am a resident of Granite City Community Unit School District number 9 and am 65 years-of-age or older. I would appreciate receiving the Gold Seal Award which will award me free of charge to certain school activities."

The schools will send the completed forms to the board of education office where the passes will be prepared. They will be laminated in the audit and visual department and then will be mailed to those who have applied for them.

The board voted to have Prestige Printing Co. print the cards at a cost of $18 for each 300 cards.

County and six from Madison County.

Of the six from either county no more than three can be of the same political party.

The 12-member board is appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the State Senate. Board members are to serve five-year terms.

B. The exposition facility will be funded by the sale of revenue bonds. These bonds will be obligations of the Authority.

Bonds will be funded from charges on the use of the facility, and from appropriations by the General Assembly to the Authority as provided in "C" below.

C. McCormick Place presently receives appropriations from the General Assembly from a special state fund comprised mainly of cigarette and parimutuel tax revenues.

Excess tax revenues exceeding the amount required for current McCormick Place bond retirement in that fund each year go back to the state General Revenue Fund.

Senate Bill now provides that such excess revenue in the McCormick Place Fund will now go to a special holding fund for the Metro-East Exposition Authority.

The General Assembly is then authorized to appropriate from that special fund to the Metro-East Exposition Authority for the sole purpose of retiring revenue bonds.

Mitchell

Harry Breckner, MAA president. Entertainment will start at 8 o'clock Friday evening with the Walt Schlemmer Orchestra. The Purple Knights group will perform at 10:30 p.m. Saturday, and Nixon and his band will appear at 8 o'clock the same evening.

Holding a question and answer session about real estate and related topics were John Krevokich, Herman Schroeder and Edwin Reinagle.

Kiddie matinees when midway rides will be reduced in cost will be held from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. Tickets costing 20 cents each or half price are available in advance of tomorrow's opening date from Mitchell area merchants, Breckner said.

A native of Poplar Bluff, Mo., Nick Nixon was recruited by the Mercury label. He has co-written songs for Barbara Fairchild, Dick Curless, the Wilbur Brothers and Roy Rogers.

In conjunction with Don Earl, Nixon wrote the "Teddy Bear Song" which won two Grammy citations, one for country and one for pop, and an award from the Nashville Songwriters Association.

Nixon's first release for Mercury under producer Glenn Saxton was "Leave Your Back Porch Light On" b/w "Battle of New Orleans," followed by "I'm Turning You Loose" b/w "An Old Memory." His latest release is "A Habit I Can't Break" b/w "Walk on By."

Southwest Missouri has appeared in several St. Louis clubs and with such artists as John Wesley Ryles, Peggy Sue, Yule Orberts, Barbara Fairchild and at the Coliseum in Huntsville, Ala., with Stan Hicks.

She recently teamed up on a song writing with Les Isaacs and made her first release on Nashville's Record "Two of Game Hunter" b/w "Help Me Convince My Heart." Both songs were written by Miss Bennett and Isaacs.

Barbecue pork steaks, fried chicken and fish dinners and sandwiches will be available to festival patrons, Breckner reported.

Proceeds from the event will help purchase 3½ acres of ground the association has acquired, located north of East China of Rocks Road in Mitchell, and equipment and supplies sponsored by the MAA.

"At present, the association sponsors 15 girls' softball teams, 1 boy baseball team, seven soccer teams and 16 basketball squads. A girls' volleyball league also is planned this fall, Breckner said.

Home rule

$17,114. The levy for police pensions is $161,100 from $115,582. A total of $89,000 is levied for the municipal retirement fund, down from $95,000 last year.

Rudledge said the increase in the tax levy and the prospect of a $700,000 deficit if all budgeted expenditures are made results from a payroll increase of about $120,000 for the year, the increase of $46,000 in police and fire pensions and a sum of about $36,000 in the public library levy.

In addition, he noted, the city's garbage and trash collection contract for the current fiscal year was increased approximately $80,000.

These expenditures, along with the expenditure last year of $1.6 million for repairs to sanitary sewer breaks in the Nameoki area, are responsible for the city's declining financial status.

Alderman Ronald Coleman of the Seventh Ward called on council members Tuesday night to "get off dead center" and take early steps toward solving the sewer problems in the city's northern section "even if we have to turn to a bond issue for new sanitary and stormwater sewers."

Alderman Walter Nunn of the Fifth Ward suggested that the city arrange a city-wide public meeting to which federal and state legislators and officials would be invited—to measure the sentiment and prospects of federal aid for a multi-million dollar sanitary and stormwater sewer construction project.

Several aldermen have urged replacement of the present Nameoki area sewer to halt the expenditure of large sums of money for repairing breaks in the lines caused by a high water table and interior flooding in periods of heavy rains.

Mayor Paul Schuler suggested the council await results of an extensive water survey for which the city has appropriated $12,000 to pay engineering costs. The survey is intended to determine what steps the city should take to meet its sanitary sewer problems.

The city still has about 15 sewer breaks that have not been repaired. Nine of these require constant bypass pumping. The city discontinued repair work by the Finis Ernest Contracting Co. two months ago.

1,000 housing units needed, Rotary told

The Quad-City area is short about 1,000 housing units to sell three local real estate men told the Tuesday noon meeting of the Granite City Rotary Club at the YMCA.

Holding a question and answer session about real estate and related topics were John Krevokich, Herman Schroeder and Edwin Reinagle.

Civic center

used for paying construction costs. State proceeds from the state tax on horse racing will be used to retire the bonds.

In addition, it is expected that local authorities will also provide financial support for the projects. Rent of civic centers will be a principal income, and SIUE might use a center near it extensively.

Gov. Walker said, "With this approval, the state will provide $60 million of support to build much-needed auditoriums and exposition halls."

"The civic center program will provide an economic boost to these areas. There will be better facilities for conventions and for cultural and entertainment events."

"The centers will bring more visitors. In turn, there will be more business for local stores, hotels and restaurants—places that provide jobs for people."

"Building the centers will also create jobs for the unemployed, at a time when the national economy is so uncertain."

The changes Walker suggested, besides the increase in funding for Peoria, would:

1. Delete a section that might have diverted funds from downstate county fair assistance.
2. Specify that civic center bonds will be used for civic center construction.
3. Create the special state fund that will hold the money for the civic centers and provide for transfers into the fund.
4. Make it clearly possible for the cities to repay the bonds from civic center revenues and bond proceeds investments as well as from state funds.

5. Provide that the civic center program will be administered by the Illinois Department of Business and Economic Development.

September plans of parents club

St. Charles Wine Garden, 1219 S. Main St., St. Charles, Mo., will be the location of the season's first social meeting of Parents Without Partners, Eastside Chapter, 91, on Saturday evening, according to the president, Jim Dowdy.

The organization's general session will take place at 8 p.m. Monday at the VFW Post, 1294 Vandallia Ave., Collinsville. Registration begins at 7:30 p.m. Other meetings and social events planned this month include: Children's activities at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 11, and Sept. 18 at Woodland Park, Collinsville, featuring a picnic and cookout; and a visit and picnic lunch at the St. Louis Zoo on Sept. 28.

A social evening is arranged at the home of Fran Fowlkes, 7 Susanne Court, Caseyville, Sept. 14, and dancing at Collinsville Park Ballroom, Sept. 21. Members celebrating birthdays from Aug. 22 to Sept. 22 will be honored at the Sept. 14 event, Dowdy said.

Future plans also include a hayride in October and the annual "Sno-Ball" dance on Dec. 7.

Trio Unit hears energy program

"The Homemaker and Energy Conservation" was the major lesson presented by Mrs. Alice Reinhardt and Mrs. Genevieve Hill at a meeting Tuesday of the Trio Unit, Madison County Homemakers Extension Association.

A noon dessert luncheon was served by Mrs. Helen Schaefer, Mrs. Villa Ridings and Mrs. Rose Stearns at Hope Lutheran Church prior to the business session.

Thirty-two members attended, including four new members, Mesdames Auretta Santagato, Emily Accola, Marie Durbin and Helen Roessner, who joined the unit during the meeting.

Mrs. Mabel Gertsch, 4-H chairman, said several members of the 50-year 4-H Club received "A" and "B" prizes at the state fair. She reported two new 4-H leaders, Mrs. Joanna Spencer and Mrs. Alice Hill, will assume duties with the unit sponsored club.

Plans were made to deliver mobile meals next week as a community project.

Mrs. Ruth Brave reviewed sewing classes at St. Peter Evangelical United Church of Christ and introduced four class members who modeled garments they had completed. They were Betty Gritz, Mary Ellen Lewis, Rosemond Johnson and Helene Kettelhut.

During the social hour games were played and prizes were awarded to Betty Gritz, Helen Roessner and Ruth Brave.

Women of Moose plan ceremonies

Mrs. Nancy Hamilton, senior regent of the Women of Moose, Chapter 367, presided at a business meeting at the Moose Lodge and announced several award ceremonies are planned during the next month.

Junior graduate regent Mrs. Margaret Houseman read a letter from the International Headquarters of Women of the Moose at Mooseheart, Ill., reporting a "green cap" presentation event will be held Oct. 3 to Oct. 5 in Peoria.

Mrs. Hamilton said 11 women will receive Academy of Friendship memberships and the local chapter will be presented an award for achievements in the past year from the international group.

The birthdays of Helen Davis, Doreen Basan and Mildred Votoupal were observed during the social hour. Cake and coffee were served to 32 members and prizes were won by Mrs. Davis, Shirley Greene and Sara Gusewelle.

Mrs. Perry hosts afternoon club

Members of the Monday Afternoon Card Club met this week in the home of Mrs. Marie Perry, 2507 Hodges Ave., for cards, followed by a luncheon.

Those excelling in the games and winning prizes were Mrs. Leona Parente, Mrs. Myrtle Bruns, Mrs. Margaret Richardson and Mrs. Kathy Murphy.

Others attending were Mrs. Vi Edwards, Mrs. Mildred Gray and Mrs. Cecil Kennedy.

Discuss new phase of higher education plan

Development of a new phase of the Master Plan for Illinois higher education will be discussed at a public meeting Sept. 16 on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Carbondale.

The first of three statewide meetings scheduled during September by the staff of the Illinois Board of Higher Education, the conference will give persons in Southern Illinois an opportunity to give their views on the development of Phase IV of the Illinois Master Plan. Other meetings will be at Illinois State University in Normal and the University of Illinois Chicago Circle Campus. According to a report adopted by the IBHE, the September conferences will "determine if there are facets or concerns which have been overlooked, questions that should be answered or recommendations that could be brought to the attention of the various study groups as they are engaged in their study efforts." Set for 10 a.m. Sept. 16 in the SIUC Student Center, the first discussion will open with introductions and a statement by a member of the IBHE, followed by small group discussions by persons attending the conference. The discussions will be moderated by members of the IBHE staff, who will summarize the discussions at the conclusion of the meeting. Discussion topics include: higher education enrollment projections, governance of higher education, student access, scholarship and loan programs, higher education capital construction needs, commitments, and programmatic organization of a community college system. Any other relevant subjects brought up by conference participants also will be discussed. Preliminary reports from IBHE study groups are due early next year, with Phase IV of the master plan scheduled for completion by September 1975.

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD

Elections among highlights of Arrow conclave at Sunnen

The Cahokia Lodge, Order of the Arrow, will hold its annual fall conclave and election of officers at Camp Sunnen, near Polo, Mo. Sept. 13, 14 and 15. Kevin Kearns, conclave chairman reports.

The Order of the Arrow is a national brotherhood of scout honor campers. Highlighting the weekend events will be the election of both lodge and chapter officers and awarding of the vigil honor.

The "vigil" is a national honor, awarded to those who have given outstanding service to their local scout unit, their community and the general scout movement.

A special discussion group titled "Ties of Brotherhood" program of the Boy Scouts of America.

The program Friday evening, Sept. 13, will be mainly social. Arrowmen attending will participate in discussion groups on Saturday morning.

Discussion groups to be held include: history, purpose and principles of the Arrow, led by Mike Billeby, lodge chief, and G. Rollin Henn; role of the adult, led by Reginald Mennerick, council camping chairman and lodge advisor; and functions of a chapter, led by Richard Wallace.

A special discussion group titled "Ties of Brotherhood" will be led by Kearns, current lodge secretary, and J. Richard Hooks.

Campaigning for office will occupy the afternoon; both chapter and lodge officers are to be elected.

Ordinal members who have met the requirements for Brotherhood membership will be elevated to that station of membership in special ceremonies held in the ritual ring of the Arrow, set deep in the woods of the Clark National Forest that surrounds Camp Sunnen.

"I hope every Arrowman in the lodge will make a special effort to attend the fall conclave," Kearns said. "The conclave committee has worked hard to make it enjoyable and beneficial."

He emphasized the need for advance registrations to be in the local Scout Service Center, 1388A Niedringhaus Ave., by 5 p.m. Monday, Sept. 9.

The cost is $4 for Ordinal and Brotherhood members and $5 for Brotherhood candidates and nonmembers.

Parents' Day Sept. 22

Parents' Day will be held Sept. 22 at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville for parents of entering freshmen and community college transfer students.

"The transition from high school to college is often a difficult step for both the student and family. To help bridge this gap, we have developed a program to acquaint parents with the resources and potential problems of campus life," Dr. John S. Rendleman, president of the university, said in a letter to parents.

"A beginning freshman needs much support and encouragement. We feel that parental understanding and support is essential to a student's success," Dr. Rendleman said.

Registration will be held in

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD
Thurs., Sept. 5, 1974 Page 34

the University Center from 11 a.m. until 12:15 p.m. Sept. 22. Informational workshops will follow.

Parents will be able to attend workshops on student work and financial assistance, the classroom experience, social activities, future job market, housing, counseling and health services, choosing a major, resources for solving disciplinary problems, higher education for adults, and planning a parents' association. Representatives from university departments, including academic instructors, staff, office personnel, advisers and counselors, security and medical staff, will be in charge of the workshops.

Parents will be able to see what benefits SIUE offers their children, and also find out more about taking classes themselves.

A tour of the university campus will be given from 3:30 p.m. until 4:30 p.m. The day will end with a free barbecue at Tower Lake.

"We are holding Parents' Day in conjunction with the first day that SIUE students can move into Tower Lake housing," Jim Rotter, coordinator of the New Student Life program, said. Many out-of-town parents are expected on campus that day, helping their sons and daughters move to university housing.

Participates in Cyprus evacuation

He serves with Marine Medium Helicopter Squadron 162, which provided aircraft during the evacuation, transporting personnel from the island to ships of the U.S. Sixth Fleet. The evacuees were further transported to safety at Beirut, Lebanon.

Rhodes was embarked with the squadron aboard the amphibious assault ship USS Inchon during the operation. A 1969 graduate of Madison High School, he joined the Marine Corps in September 1960.

Second instructional TV channel proposed

Preparation of an application to the Federal Communications Commission to request a construction permit to activate UHF Channel 40 has been approved unanimously by the Board of Trustees of the St. Louis Educational Television Commission, licensee of WUEF Channel 9, the St. Louis area non-commercial TV station.

The application to operate Channel 40 is part of a five-year plan for increased community service, 1975-1980, authorized by the 15-member board which sets policies for operation of Channel 9.

Fifth oldest non-commercial television channel operating in the nation, Channel 9 will observe its 20th anniversary Sept. 20.

The KETC-TV board's current action was no surprise, since it had gone on record in 1965 to file in declaration of intent regarding activation of Channel 40.

At that same time, the board began a three-phase improvement program which included upgrading Channel 9 transmitting facilities to full power, improving the Channel 9 signal for color telecasting and upgrading local studio production facilities for color origination. These three phases of the KETC-TV improvement program have been completed.

Activation of Channel 40 was planned at the time of construction of KETC-TV's new Broadcast Center in south county, and provision was made for adding a Channel 40 antenna on the new 1,075-foot tower at that location.

Operation of the second channel by the same educational organization operating Channel 9 will be the most economical way for St. Louis to have a second non-commercial channel, it is contended. Two-channel operation for instructional television is well established in many other large cities across the nation.

KETC-TV officials have indicated several definite advantages to adding second channel capacity to current educational TV operations.

Among them are increased instructional programming for schools and colleges, more air time for adult telecourses, more alternate viewing times for popular programs, more capacity for airing a greater portion of Public Broadcasting System network offerings in St. Louis, additional programming for business and industry training, and more local programming without loss of PBS network offerings.

Estimating errors assailed

Revenue estimating errors by the governor and the General Assembly are not providing an adequate basis for sound fiscal planning in Illinois state government, Comptroller George W. Lindberg charged in his latest monthly "fiscal health" report.

The comptroller's report showed that for fiscal year 1974, which ended on June 30, the governor's Bureau of the Budget initial estimates of income to the state's general operating funds from sales and income taxes were $192 million short of actual receipts. In addition, the report showed the General Assembly's Economic and Fiscal Commission underestimated the state's general funds income in the same period by $223 million.

"Errors of this magnitude do not provide an adequate basis for sound fiscal planning," Lindberg asserted.

The comptroller noted that errors in predicting the state's income stem from economic events which are difficult to foresee, making the state's annual budget process "always subject to uncertainty." The fiscal year that ended June 30 was one characterized by turbulent economic change, the state's general funds income in the same period by $223 million.

"But there are costs associated with the estimating errors that arise from the economic storm around us. Underestimating revenues causes state programs to be unnecessarily underfunded, including tax relief and the welfare program.

"If revenues fall short of estimates, while spending is budgeted up to estimated income levels, potential disadvantages include a tax increase or cuts in state services.

"In either case, accurate planning is impossible." Lindberg also reported that the state is in generally healthy financial condition, with a general fund available balance of $539 million at the end of July 1974, or $86 million higher than at the end of the previous month.

Building removal, repair activities are continuing

Gene Robertson, health officer, told Madison aldermen last week that 10-day formal notices to clean up and repair property—or risk court action—were issued regarding structures at 1030 Iowa St., 1237 Madison Ave. and 1874 Edwardsville Road.

He reported that condemnation proceedings are in the courts on structures located at 1882 Third St., 1639 Seventh St. and 1332 Grand Ave.

Fifth Ward Alderman John Haynes reported, "I am still getting complaints from people in the 700 block of Jefferson Street about a junk yard there. I feel we have looked around with this problem long enough. People tell me rats are coming from the junk yard."

Mayor Sastry then instructed Curtis King, assistant health officer, to submit a report to Casper Nighossian, city attorney, so that the city can take legal action.

"I agree with Alderman Haynes. We have tried to get the yard cleaned up. It appears we have no other course but to take immediate legal action," the mayor commented.

Alderman Mike Sikoras of the Fourth Ward asked the health officer or police check junk cars and a trailer in the 900 block of State Street. "It looks like a mess and I have had complaints," Sikoras said.

While we are on the subject, I would like the police or Robertson to check out junk cars in the 1600 block of Fifth St., First Ward Alderman Paul Ashford related.

Christ Costoff, alderman of the Fourth Ward, asked, "What about the railroad tracks? Are we ever going to get the railroads to do anything about fixing them?"

Mayor Sastry replied, "I have been in telephone contact with the railroad officials and they have assured me that all the crossings will be repaired. If they do not do something in the next week to ten days, I'll call them."

In other action, the council approved the use of the Madison fire truck in the Newport Homecoming parade Saturday, and gave approval for door-to-door solicitation for the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation Sept. 15.

Venice free meal program

Venice public schools today announced their policy for free meals. Free milk and reduced price meals for children unable to pay the full price of meals and milk served under the National School Lunch, School Breakfast and Special Milk programs.

School officials have adopted the following family size and income criteria for determining eligibility for free meals, $2910, $3830, $4740, $5640, $6480, $7310, $8060, $9150, $10,190, $10,860 and $11,530.

Family income limit for reduced-price meals is $4060, $5360, $6630, $7900, $9070, $10,240, $11,290, $12,340, $13,320, $14,260, $15,200 and $16,140.

For each additional family member, the limits rise $670 for free meals and $940 for reduced-price meals.

Children from families whose income is at or below the levels shown are eligible for free meals, free milk and reduced price meals.

In addition, families not meeting these criteria but with other unusual expenses due to unusually high medical expenses, shelter costs in excess of 30 per cent of income, special education expenses due to the mental or physical condition of a child, and disaster or casualty losses are urged to apply.

Application forms are being sent to all homes in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school.

The information provided on the application is confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility. Applications may be submitted at any time during the year.

In certain cases, foster children also are eligible for these benefits. If a family has foster children living with it and wishes to apply for such meals and milk for them, the school should be contacted.

All children are treated the same regardless of ability to pay. In the operation of child nutrition programs, no child is discriminated against because of his race, sex, color or national origin.

For any further assistance or if family income changes during the year, parents are urged to contact the school district, Robert N. Vickers, superintendent, reported.

Off-campus master degree program starts Sept. 28

The first classes of an off-campus master's degree program in "social-organizational" psychology are scheduled to begin in St. Louis Sept. 28.

John E. Forbets, assistant to the dean of the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville School of Education, reports the course will be offered in the popular weekend format which has marked other SIUE off-campus graduate programs. Classes will be conducted on alternate weekends for a total of six, six-hour days.

Classes will be taught in the Federal Building at 1250 Market St. or the St. Louis Public Library. Registered students will be notified of the exact location.

The program will lead to a fully accredited master's degree in psychology. It is open to all qualified students holding a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university. No campus residency is required.

"The program is people-oriented," Forbets said. "It will emphasize development of skills and techniques of leadership and interpersonal communication, motivation and human relationships. It will be valuable for professional advancement and personal growth."

He said an "enthusiastic response" was received when the program was explained at informational briefings in St. Louis this summer. Additional information may be obtained from the SIUE School of Education.

SCHOOL BURGLARIZED

Burglars entered Sacred Heart School, 2600 Washington Ave., and forced open cabinets in the kitchen and sewing room. It was reported at 8:10 a.m. Tuesday. An assortment of dishes was left near an exit door. It is not known what was stolen. There were no signs of forced entry and officials believe someone may have hidden inside the building when it was locked for the night.

State investments are cited by Dixon

"It does no good for a public official to talk economy and discuss the merits of fighting inflation unless that public official is willing to practice what he preaches," State Treasurer Alan J. Dixon said Monday night at a Madison County Democratic rally at the homecoming grounds in Bethalto.

Dixon told the audience to "be leery of elected officials, of either political party, who talk one way but perform another."

He went on to note that his administration will have earned $350 million in interest on state bank deposits when his first term ends in January.

The treasurer was introduced by State Senator Sam

Vadalabene of Edwardsville.

In his introduction of Dixon, Vadalabene said the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce recently praised Dixon's investment policies, a program netting the state 82 per cent more money than any administration preceding Dixon's.

Dixon said that for the "first time in history, there is not such a thing as interest-free money."

He pointed out that a recent overnight investment of $211 million earned the state $58,000 in interest. Dixon also is the first treasurer in history to deposit state funds with banks in all 103 counties in Illinois.

The only other revenue-producing programs earning more money than interest are income tax, sales tax, motor fuel tax, public utility tax and the cigarette tax. It was noted.

Dixon said a cash management projection program developed by his administration has made it possible for the state to invest the maximum amount of money at the best available interest rates for the longest periods possible.

Specifically, the program is a computerized system of accumulating exact balances in each of the state's 265 funds at any given time. It also shows how long such a balance will remain there.

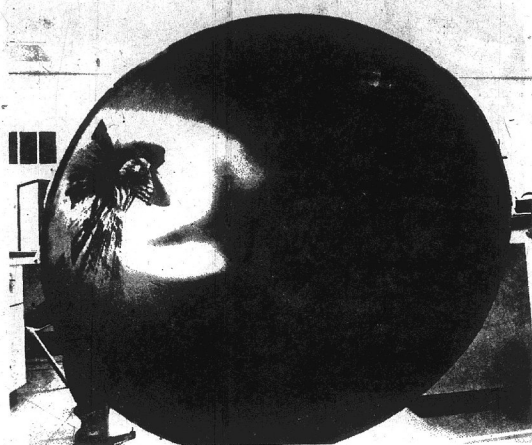

Asserting that the investment program in his office has become a model for many states, Dixon said, "I'm happy to offer our investment knowledge to other state treasurers and to make easily accessible any statistics in our office as well."

Dixon is completing a four-year term and seeking re-election. A veteran of 20 years in the General Assembly, he served 12 years in the House and eight years in the Senate.

LONG VIEW—Darrell Gambrell of Mascoutah, a physics major at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, looks down the tube of a 12.5-inch reflecting telescope which he and two other students are building. When completed, the telescope will be used for astronomy viewing sessions at the physics sky lab on the SIUE campus. Assisting with the project are David Gerdt of Edwardsville and David Rapp of Granite City, both graduate students.

SIUE Students Build 12.5-Inch Telescope

Three physics majors at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville are building a 12.5-inch reflecting telescope from scrap iron and steel.

"This telescope will double our resolution and improve light gathering performance by a factor of four," Lionel Walford, physics department chairman, said. "We now have only six-inch telescopes."

Darrell Gambrell of Mascoutah and graduate students David Gerdt of Edwardsville and David Rapp, Granite City, wrote the proposal for constructing the telescope and are using money from the physics department instruction budget to finance their project.

When completed, the instrument will use a commercial 12.5-inch diameter f/5 paraboloid mirror and clock drive. "We wanted to grind our own mirror," the three physics students explained, but Professor Walford discouraged us from doing so because it took him (Walford) and a friend six months to build a mirror half the size we need."

When the telescope is finished it will be used for the regular weekly astronomy viewing sessions at the physics sky lab on Bluff Road outside of Edwardsville. Members of the public are invited to attend the sessions, Walford said. Area high school students and teachers especially are encouraged to visit the sky lab.

NEW APARTMENTS—Several apartments in the new Tower Lake housing complex at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville are ready for occupancy during the fall quarter. When completed, 32 buildings will provide housing for 1,000 additional single students. The project is scheduled for completion in March, 1975. The complex is on a rolling, wooded site north of the existing Tower Lake apartments, which house 400 single students and 148 families.

More cities to issue bonds against blight

Gov. Dan Walker has signed Senate Bill 1385, permitting municipalities to issue revenue bonds for commercial redevelopment projects.

The bill, sponsored by State Sen. John L. Knuppel (D, Virginia) expands the authority of non-home rule local governments to redevelop blighted areas. Home rule units have this authority now.

Gov. Walker said the bill will benefit smaller cities and towns trying to expand their economic base, particularly their downtown areas, by purchasing rundown property, redeveloping it and selling it to private owners.

Walker said: "The bill gives communities flexibility to revitalize and expand their economic base. They can now finance the renovation of a downtown area and sell it to private businessmen."

"This keeps the free enterprise system healthy and at the same time helps preserve the vitality of smaller communities."

"The bill will be especially beneficial to such small cities as Canton, in Western Illinois, which is struggling to bring new life to its commercial area."

Funds to repair damaged roads

Gov. Dan Walker has announced that the federal government has agreed to pay the full cost of repairing federally-supported roads and bridges damaged by spring flooding this year along several Illinois river basins.

Federal Highway Administrator Norbert T. Tiemann informed Gov. Walker by letter that he concurs with the governor's July 8 proclamation of an emergency due to flooding along the Mississippi, Illinois, Rock, Sangamon and Fox Rivers.

"I find it to be in the public interest for the federal share for the repair and reconstruction of damages to the federal-aid highway systems to be increased to 100 per cent," Tiemann said.

State's limited air sampling system shows no sulfur dioxide problem here and a suspended dust particle level that is improving but still too high

It might be possible for Granite Cityans to shrug off statistics compiled this summer by the Technical Services Section, Division of Air Pollution Control, Illinois Environmental Protection Agency. But instead, it might be more constructive to give the figures thorough scrutiny.

Granite City is nowhere to be found among 1973 Illinois sulfur dioxide rankings. McCook has the most serious problem, followed by a location in Chicago, East St. Louis, Wood River, four other Chicago sites and a Peoria location.

The list goes on to include Springfield, Bedford Park, Maywood, Cicero, Oak Park, Rock Island, Rockford, Calumet City, LaSalle, Carlyle, Harvey, Normal, Blue Island, Quincy, Decatur, Park Forest, Hillside, Morton Grove, Summit, Rockford, Wilmette and DesPlaines.

Statewide, sulfur dioxide levels continue to decline, as they have for the past several years. So2 enters the atmosphere primarily from fuel combustion, particularly coal, and from sulfuric acid plants. The national primary ambient air quality standard of 0.03 parts per million for an annual arithmetic mean was exceeded only at McCook in 1973.

It is in the field of suspended particulate levels — fine dust particles — that Granite City continues to attract notoriety.

Of the 136 particulate sampling sites operated in Illinois during the past year, 130 met the statistical criterion set for calculating annual averages — 20 or more samples for the year. The annual particulate average at 55 of the 130 exceeded the recommended standard, including half of the Cook County sampling sites and a third of those Downstate.

Highest annual average concentration was recorded at Granite City, 202 micrograms per cubic meter, and the lowest at Carlyle, 35, compared to a national primary ambient air quality standard of 75 set by the U. S. Environmental Protection Agency.

Considerable progress has been recorded here and elsewhere. At 88 Illinois sites where comparisons can be made for a four-year period, the number exceeding the primary standard has dropped from 71 in 1970 to 64 in 1971, to 50 in 1972 and 47 in 1973. Some worsening between 1972 and 1973 was noted in Cook County.

Robert A. Samis, a Technical Services Section research analyst, reports that "outside of the Cook County area, a definite decline in particulate levels was almost universally found. Twenty-nine sampling locations demonstrated a significant decrease, another 24 showed minor decreases and only two stations, in Decatur and Rock Island, had significant increases.

During 1973, sampling sites were opened at Galena and Metropolis, expanding coverage to all 11 of the federally promulgated Air Quality Control Regions; both of the newly monitored regions were found to exceed the primary standard.

"The metropolitan St. Louis area, including Granite City, showed marked improvement during 1973, as did Will County and DuPage County. The Rock Island-Moline area did not demonstrate any particular trend. The Peoria-Pekin area showed modest improvement."

Compared to one Chicago site which saw its annual average of 134 micrograms worsen to 163 between 1972 and 1973, the Granite City site at 2001 E. 20th St. improved from 205 to 202 micrograms. 15th-Madison Avenue from 200 to 161 and 2050 Iowa St. from 183 to 143.

Next in 1973 were Decatur 112, Galena 111, Bensenville 110, 23rd-Madison Avenue here 110 (from 124 the previous year), Cahokia Mounds State Park 101, Metropolis 98, 2000 Edison Ave. here 96 (from 128), Quincy 89 and 2301 E. 23rd St. in Granite City 88 (from 89).

Other 1973 averages included East St. Louis and East Moline 87, Joliet 85, Moline 84, Joliet again at 83, Peoria 82, Roosevelt and Rock Road here 82 (from 116), Rock Island and Addison 81, Rockdale 80, Aurora and Wood River 79, Joliet 78 and Quincy 77.

Samis says that "particulate matter, often referred to as soot or dust, can enter the atmosphere from many sources. Generally, the most significant are the burning of coal and industrial processes such as steel manufacturing or cement production. Other sources include quarrying operations, road construction and farming operations."

"Finely divided particles that remain in the air for extended periods are harmful because their small size enables them to bypass the body's nasal defenses and be inhaled into the lungs, causing temporary or permanent injury of the surfaces of the respiratory system. Adverse material effects can include corrosion of metals, soiling of textiles and buildings and damage to electrical equipment."

While the state finds "marked improvement" here, it seems apparent that corrective efforts should be continued and expanded.

Local air is better than in the past, but still not good enough.

Illinois ninth lottery state

On July 30, 7,500 licensed ticket agents began marketing lottery tickets under a state law passed by the 1973 legislature and approved by Gov. Daniel Walker.

In a way, it's the attempt by the state to harness the compulsion to gamble. Last year, the people of Illinois placed bets totaling $658.9 million at state-sanctioned racetracks.

And that wasn't all. Uncounted millions were wagered on illegal punch boards, the numbers racket, sports pool betting, dice and poker games.

Americans spend a fortune each year hoping to win the pot at the end of the rainbow. They seldom win.

But the lottery, at least, holds out the hope legally.

"I'm not exaggerating when I say there will be prizes galore — 20,000 to 25,000 each week — about $60 million each year," Gov. Walker said recently.

Illinois is the ninth state in the nation to have legally sanctioned lottery games.

Chief legislative backers pushed the program as a lucrative source of state revenue and as a possible deterrent to widespread illegal gambling. But, more practically, chances are the telling argument was that some of the lottery's revenue would go to finance the Chicago area Regional Transit Authority.

Critics charged a lottery would lead to corruption and a possible takeover by the underworld. They said it would be a way for other forms of legalized gambling in the future — that it was simply a foot in the door. The facts from other states show little or no corruption to date. Who plays? A study of the Pennsylvania lottery provides the following information:

— 87 per cent of Pennsylvania residents say they have played the lottery at least once.

— 84 per cent buy tickets at least once or more per week.

Those who are rich and the very poor tend to buy less tickets than those in middle income brackets.

— Those under 25 and over 65 buy fewer tickets than middle-age groups.

— Males buy more tickets than females.

Like most lotteries, the Illinois game is designed primarily as a money maker for the state treasury. However, the statistical evidence on earnings is not all rosy.

In New York, for example, there were early predictions that profits would average $1 million a day. But in the first nine months of the 1973-74 fiscal year, earnings amounted to less than $42.5 million.

It should be noted that New York is in close competition for ticket sales with several neighboring states. The nearest competition for the Illinois game is Michigan.

Other states facing dwindling interest turned to a number of devices and twists. They offered daily winnings, material prizes such as automobiles or home appliances, scholarships, vacations and even loser drawings.

But there are those who believe, and there are preliminary statistics to support it, that interest can only be held by making the games more and more like the illegal games. This is also true of a vehicle for that secondary goal of cutting into illegal syndicate gambling.

Take for instance the Massachusetts "instant game." A variation of the illegal punchboard game, a player buys a ticket and rubs off a gummed covering revealing a series of five numbers. If two or more of the numbers match the player instantly wins up to $10,000.

In total, the governor said interest are only a few of the problems faced by lottery officials. There are legal technicalities and problems as well. For instance, radio and television stations licensed by the federal government are not allowed to carry lottery advertising or even the winning numbers. It's a boon for the newspaper industry but a headache for lottery public relations.

In addition there is talk the federal government may implement a 10 per cent excise tax on lottery profits which totaled just over $700 million last year. Such action would cripple lottery operations in the opinion of the directors, and would be a blow to the stated goal of cutting into it.

legal gambling activities which for obvious reasons are not bound by federal taxation. Legalized gambling, in this case a lottery, is by no means a new method of financing state government. Nor is it unique to this country.

Lotteries were used in the North America during Colonial times to finance such projects as roads, bridges, schools, courthouses, forts and universities including Harvard, Columbia, Princeton and Yale.

George Washington, Thomas Jefferson and Benjamin Franklin all at one time sponsored public lotteries. A lottery was developed to aid the Continental Congress in 1776 to finance the Revolutionary War. Lotteries flourished throughout the 1800s. But in the late 1890s a scandal involving the giant Louisiana operation prompted Congress to pass highly restrictive laws against all such forms of domestic betting.

As a result lotteries disappeared from the American scene until 1964 when New Hampshire implemented a lottery under direct control and supervision of the state. Since that time the legal gambling fever has spread to New York, Maine, New Jersey, Michigan, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Maryland, Ohio and now Illinois.

Dread of a convenient Illinois freeway network is still not much of a reality

SPRINGFIELD — In the mid-1960s the legislative Transportation Study Commission conceived a dream — a 1,590-mile network of modern four-lane highways designed to supplement the new interstate system.

The ultimate goal was to assure that all residents of Illinois would be within 30 miles of a convenient highway which could carry travelers safely and as directly as possible to any city in the state with a population over 25,000.

Last year the first segment of that dream became a reality.

About halfway between Peoria and Lincoln, running parallel to the old two-lane route 121, a 3.5-mile stretch of the "supplemental freeway system" was opened to traffic for the first time.

By next June state Department of Transportation (DOT) officials predict that another 49 miles of the system, between Rock Falls and Rockford will be opened to motorists.

But beyond that, no one will speculate in terms of specific opening dates. And for a good reason.

The construction of highways, perhaps more so than any other issue in this state of 11 million persons, is a political hotbed of controversy that plagues the General Assembly year after year.

"You can't get there from here," said the late Rep. Roscoe Cunningham in what has become a symbolic remark. The highway he was referring to was the difficult (and dangerous, he claims) automobile trip from Springfield to the state capital, Springfield, via the Lincoln, Peoria, Rock Island, Moline, Rock Island, Peoria, Springfield route.

To curtail these crimes, a four-phase program of research, training, intensified investigation and increased public awareness has been developed within the FBI. It is essential that law enforcement agencies at all levels examine their priorities to make certain they are pursuing their responsibilities to detect and investigate white-collar crime.

At a time when the fairness of the criminal justice system is most seriously questioned, the law enforcement profession must insure that, in the investigative process, there is truly equal justice under the law.

creation various stages of construction of each leg of the Transportation Study Commission's dream.

This is not to say that progress isn't being made, says Alan Abbott, director of the Transportation Study Commission; it just takes time — in many cases as long as 10 years — to build a short segment of highway from conception to pavement.

On June 28th, Gov. Daniel Walker announced plans to spend $194.4 million on the Downstate portion of the supplemental freeway system during the current fiscal year.

In total, the governor said 80 miles of the system will be let for actual construction. In total, the DOT estimates the system will cost $170.4 million. The remaining $23.9 million is earmarked for land acquisition and engineering studies.

By next June state Department of Transportation (DOT) officials predict that another 49 miles of the system, between Rock Falls and Rockford will be opened to motorists.

But beyond that, no one will speculate in terms of specific opening dates. And for a good reason.

political, and said many persons "will be fooled" by advertisements for specific projects that are years away from completion or even construction.

Among those feeling the brunt of Walker's reduction veto was Rep. Cunningham. A $1 million appropriation for FAP 409 running from Lawrenceville to Clay City was reduced to $100,000 and $8 million for FAP 411 was slashed to $250,000.

"The governor should hang his head in shame," declared Cunningham. "The South-eastern section of Illinois is the most neglected" in the state in terms of highways.

"If it were possible we would have seceded to Indiana long ago."

Walker's commitment to the supplemental freeway program is highly suspect by the General Assembly. Last year the governor announced plans to move ahead with two-lane roads with future plans for conversion to four-lane highways.

Legislative screams were instant and the administration later abandoned the plan. This year?

"The issue ultimately will focus on whether or not the money Walker cut out could actually be spent," said Fred Schoenfeld, executive director of the Transportation Study Commission.

Schoenfeld said the commission plans to scrutinize the DOT budget project by project this summer so the facts will be based in time for the veto session of the General Assembly.

As for the administrations' story on the current status of the freeway system: "The DOT budget project by project this summer so the facts will be based in time for the veto session of the General Assembly."

Now, he said, the highway construction process has fallen victim to bureaucratic red tape and rounds of paper work — so much so that it often takes as long as 10 years to construct a highway from beginning to end.

The system, and perhaps for the better, he added, is designed to protect individuals, the environment, local governments and the motorist. It is at the point where one person, with a smart lawyer, can theoretically stop a road project for years, he said.

"It's difficult for people to believe that it takes so long," Abbott noted. And it is that, he explained, that led politicians and others to suspect the administration is foot dragging.

What does it take to build a highway?

Step number one is the actual determination that a highway is needed and wanted.

Corridor studies. This is the second step. At this point the general location of the road is located on the map. Non-specific, it is narrowed down to a three-mile-wide strip. Local governments are contacted and public hearings are held. An environmental impact study is performed. Questions as to what side of a road the road by-pass are answered. A preliminary land survey is conducted and finally the Federal Highway Department must concur with the preliminary plans. The corridor process often takes from two to three years.

Design stage. At least three specific highway alignments are selected. Public hearings are held again and local governments are pressed for more input. Another environmental impact statement is filed. Finally, a specific route is selected. At this point it is determined whose house will have to be taken and whose land will be severed. The federal government must grant its final approval. Again it's a two to three year process.

Construction planning. The necessary land is purchased. The actual design for the highway is established. Families in the way are moved to a new home at the state's expense and the old house torn down. The process takes 18 months to two years.

— Finally, the road is ready for the actual construction process. Contracts are let usually in four to nine-mile stretches. If all goes well with the weather, labor, the availability of materials and last-minute legal technicalities, the road should be opened to traffic within two years.

At this point DOT officials estimate it will have cost at least $2 million for each mile of pavement and the costs are continuing to rise.

Abbott said many major problems in the process center on environmental issues and legal technicalities.

For instance what effect does a four-lane highway have on animal migration? Or what will the rerouting of a creek do to the water life? Will the highway flood the surrounding farm land?

No highway can be built on land designated as a recreation area unless it can be proved there is no alternative route. Cost in this case is not a factor. Final approval for such routing must be approved by the federal transportation secretary and that often takes years.

And what about noise? This is not a particular problem in rural areas but it is in the city. In some cases the highway must be built in a below-grade face-level ditch. Another noise reduction method involves the building of a wall between the highway and perhaps a hospital quiet zone.

And finally when it is all done there's the safety factor. All supplemental freeways will have break-away light poles and fixtures so that cars can't wrap around them. Abutments will be well protected and center ditches designed so that a car that swerves off the highway cannot cross to the opposite direction lanes.

The system will have a lifespan of 20 years before repaving is needed. The roads are made out of steel-reinforced concrete lying on an asphalt bed. The actual pavement is an average of nine inches thick.

It takes time, patience and money.

White-collar crime challenges the concept of equal justice under law

By CLARENCE M. KELLEY

Director Federal Bureau of Investigation

There are strong reasons to believe that the cost of "white-collar" crime dwarfs that of crimes of violence.

Financial losses to the many victims of these offenses are estimated at over $41 billion annually.

But the greatest cost is in the erosion of public confidence in institutions and persons from whom a meticulous regard for the law is expected.

What is white-collar crime? It exists in many forms of fraud, government corruption, and conflict of interest, as well as in an unlimited range of dishonest consumer and economic schemes.

Who is the white-collar criminal? He can be anyone, but usually he is a person untainted by any association with "common" criminals or common crimes.

His techniques are subtle and his appearance is often deceiving.

Rarely are there any coarse threats, physical abuse or lethal weapons involved in these crimes. Indeed, the victims are frequently his patrons, his associates or his constituency.

Because the effects of his crimes are far-reaching, taxpayers-consumers are among his victims.

They are generally unaware of being fleeced. There are good grounds for their innocence.

The white-collar criminal characteristically has all the trappings of success and respectability.

Not uncommonly, he is a prominent member of the community.

Because of the insidious nature of much white-collar crime, the public is particularly sensitive to either its presence or its danger.

To combat all this, a crime effectively requires an informed and alert public.

People should insist on the same strict enforcement of the law by business and government officials who break the law that they demand for those without status.

They ought to be as outraged when bilked by corporate fraud or government corruption as they are when assaulted and robbed by a stranger on the street.

Moreover, to reinforce this heightened concern, the public must have confidence that his complaints will be heard, the facts responsibly investigated, and those found guilty—whatever their station in life—appropriately punished.

Recently, the FBI conducted a series of white-collar crime seminars at the FBI Academy which were attended by representatives from other government agencies, universities, educators and businessmen, as well as key FBI personnel.

These seminars were designed to improve investigations of white-collar crime and to educate participants about its scope and impact.

To curtail these crimes, a four-phase program of research, training, intensified investigation and increased public awareness has been developed within the FBI.

It is essential that law enforcement agencies at all levels examine their priorities to make certain they are pursuing their responsibilities to detect and investigate white-collar crime.

Marriage is about as popular as ever

Despite the notorious divorce rate and bad press over the past few years, the marriage rate remains high.

"It's clear that marriage is something less than a pot of gold," writes Karen Durbin, author of a current article, "Is Marriage Possible?"

It deals with conflict between the incompatible human desires for freedom and security.

The woman's movement has put marriage under a microscope, it is related. The number of women-asking for marriage and childbearing as a fulltime occupation has dwindled over the past 20 years.

Financial dependency is diminishing for women. Will marriage survive?

Some people get married out of "habit, out of sheer force of cultural norms, she writes. But beyond this, marriage addresses itself to some real human needs. One of them is security, a relief from chaos and randomness, a need for a certain order and stability.

"Somewhere in everyone's psyche is the uneasy knowledge that life is frail, that human enterprise is only one small element in an equation of which we have no final control," says the author. "But marriage offers more than just security. It provides a profound intimacy that comes close to piercing the isolation of human existence."

The most significant effect of legal marriage is psychological. It creates a feeling of permanence and irrevocability, and a sense of seriousness about the relationship. It's a mark of faith.

"It just feels more relaxed to be married without the sense that you're constantly testing each other."

She concludes, "What I do like is the idea of sharing with someone a kind of love that can only develop over time, that remains when every illusion is gone and makes no difference, because you love each other more than you do your illusions."

Shrine circus to open at Speedway Sept. 10

Shrine circus time is here, and Ainaid Temple is in the midst of the two big parades that kick off the annual event. The first parade was held Wednesday night, beginning at 23rd Street and Madison Avenue in Granite City. It followed Madison Avenue and Nameoki Road to the Nameoki Village Shopping Center.

With Ainaid and all her units, Moolah Temple, a sister Shrine Temple from St. Louis, joined in the Granite City parade. There were many local floats in the parade.

Tom Hundley chaired the parade under the Ainaid Divan marshal, Don Adams. The Belleville parade will follow a new route when it starts at 3 p.m. Friday. It will form at the grounds of St. Teresa's Church at Sherman and North Bell West.

Federal, state officials to confer on lotteries

The Justice Department may be a wet blanket on the new Illinois state lottery. U. S. Atty. Gen. William Saxbe must decide soon whether federal anti-lottery laws are a dead letter or must be enforced.

One of his own men, U. S. Atty. Peter Mills of Maine, blew the whistle by asserting his intention to crack down on the Maine lottery to the full extent of the federal law.

The controversy has sent shudders among the 13 lottery states. Representatives of the affected states are to meet tomorrow with Saxbe.

Asst. U. S. Atty. Gen. W. Vincent Rakestraw, the legislative affairs chief of the Justice Department, is the one whom lawmakers on Capitol Hill turn to their questions.

Rakestraw has set out the Justice Department's position in his letter to Senator Muskie. "At the present time," Rakestraw wrote July 17, "the department is reviewing federal laws it relates to state-operated lotteries."

During the period of this review, no prosecutive action will be undertaken by the department with respect to state lotteries being conducted in a lawful manner under state law.

"It is true that state lotteries are in apparent violation of a variety of federal criminal statutes," but no prosecution is contemplated pending a review.

"If the department's policy with respect to state-operated lotteries changes in the future, ample notice will be given to the parties involved," Rakestraw wrote.

"The laws are there," a spokesman for Rakestraw said, "but we haven't brought suit yet."

He cited U. S. Code, Title 18, Section 1301 and following sections as the most applicable. They deal mostly in matters of interstate commerce, common carriers, the mails, broadcasting and banks in relation to state lotteries.

Violations carry $1,000 fines, two-year sentences, or both. The spokesman said enforcement "is in abeyance until the policy is reviewed" and Saxbe makes his decision.

Rakestraw has said that the decision might take two or three weeks.

Auditions this weekend for 'The Mikado' cast

Masquers, Incorporated, has announced auditions for its fall production of Gilbert and Sullivan's "The Mikado."

Auditions will be held on Saturday, Sept. 7, at 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. and on Sunday, Sept. 8, at 2:30 p.m. in the Masquers' hall on the third floor of the Miners Theater in Collinsville.

The community theater group is seeking a large number of male and female voices to fill the many roles which the large "Mikado" cast requires.

Anyone interested in auditioning for the play is invited to attend one of the three sessions listed. For further information, they may call the director, Al Erickson, 345-9429, or the Masquers' president, Mrs. Betty Dart, 397-0326.

"The Mikado," first produced in 1885, is known as one of the finest productions of the British team of musical playwrights, Sir William Gilbert and Sir Arthur Sullivan.

The play is scheduled to be produced by the Masquers on Nov. 22 and 23 at the Miners Theater.

Thurs., Sept. 5, 1974 Page 40

M. PAULINE BARRY, 25 of Granite City, has received a Department of the Army certificate of commendation for her outstanding performance in her work in the Transportation Division, Headquarters and Installation Support Activity (Army Aviation Systems Command) at Granite City.

New assignment

Elmendorf AFB, Alaska, is the new assignment of Air Force Sergeant Johnny Goodman Jr., son of Mrs. Virnell Goodman, Rural Route One, Granite City.

Sgt. Goodman, an operating room technician, was assigned to Elmendorf from Blytheville AFB, Ark. The sergeant attended Granite City High School. His father, Johnny Goodman Sr., resides in Valley Grove, W. Va.

In response to President Gerald Ford's statement that he is reassessing the possibility of amnesty for 50,000 draft evaders and deserters, Rep. Melvin Price of this district has released a short history of amnesty during the weekend. He said he hopes it will "provide a background for discussion of the various ethical and practical issues involved."

"There have been many amnesties in American history, many following wars. Washington pardoned insurrectionists in 1795 and 1800,

Jackson pardoned deserters in 1830, and Lincoln and Johnson pardoned deserters and rebels during and after the Civil War. "In 1947, President Truman's Amnesty Board pardoned over 1,300 men. Each of these pardons, however, was limited, conditional, or both. The Amnesty Board, for example, refused to recommend for pardon over 10,000 men who had willfully violated the law and had no valid conscientious objection." Price related.

"Other pardons in the past have been conditional on an oath of allegiance, a return to duty, or completion of a prison sentence. "At no time in American history has there been a general, unconditional amnesty of all deserters and draft evaders."

"Another important question that may arise is whether Congress or the President may declare an amnesty."

"Article II, Section 2 of the Constitution states that 'The President shall... have power to grant reprieves and pardons for offenses against the United States...'"

"This empowers the President to grant amnesties because, as the Supreme Court said in U.S. v. Klein (1871), 'Pardon includes amnesty.'"

"In Brown v. Walker (1885), the Court said amnesty and pardon 'differ, not in kind, but solely in the number they severally affect.'"

"The remaining and more uncertain question is whether Congress can grant an amnesty. On this, there are two relevant areas of inquiry: judicial precedent and past Congressional action," Cong. Price continued.

"The judicial precedent is weak, but appears to favor the view that the President's pardoning power is not ex-implicitly disclaimed the Congressional authorization and asserted his authority under the Constitution. "In 1872 and 1880, Congress passed laws removing political disabilities imposed on former rebels by Section 3 of the Fourteenth Amendment. "This legislation is also of questionable relevance to the issue of Congressional amnesty power because the Fourteenth Amendment specifically provided that Congress could remove such disabilities."
